ORDINANCES SECOND READING

The following Ordinances were in City Council January 22, 1998, Read and Passed the First Time, and are severally returned for Passage the Second Time, as amended:

An Ordinance establishing a Tax Stabilization Plan for the Village at Elmhurst, Roger Williams Realty Corp., as amended.

Be it ordained by the City of Providence:

Whereas, Section 21-169 of the Ordinances of the City of Providence grants authority to the City Council, pursuant to Section 44-3-9 of the General Laws of the State of Rhode Island, as amended, to exempt property used for industrial or commercial purposes from the payment of property tax if the granting of the exemption meets certain conditions set forth in said Section of the Ordinance; and

Whereas, The Village at Elmhurst, Roger Williams Realty Corp., has made application under, and has satisfied each condition of the above-mentioned Ordinance; and

Whereas, The Village at Elmhurst, Roger Williams Realty Corp., plans to locate and construct in the City, a new commercial concern, to wit: and assisted living facility consisting of 68 new assisted living apartments, in a two-story wood frame building located at 700 Smith Street in Providence, Rhode Island, on a portion of Assessor's Plat 82, Lots 287, 288 and 331 ("Project"); and

Whereas, The Project will cause an increase in the tax base of the City and will increase employment opportunity in the City; and

Whereas, It is in the interest of the residents of the City of Providence to grant such an exemption to induce the development and construction of the Project in the City, and such exemption will inure to the benefit of the City;

Be it ordained by the City of Providence:

Section 1. That the findings set forth in the preceeding Whereas clauses are hereby made and confirmed.

Section 2. As long as Roger Williams Realty Corp. owns or operates the facility, it will continue to pay taxes on the facility. Roger Williams Realty Corp., its successors and assigns, agree that this property will be subject to taxation at the expiration of the tax treaty. Roger Williams Realty Corp. also agrees not to transfer the property to a tax-exempt entity or to allow any transfer by any subsequent transferee to a tax-exempt entity. Roger Williams Realty Corp. agrees to ensure that any transfer or successor will be able to make payments under the tax treaty. Roger Williams Realty Corp. is also required as a condition precedent to this tax treaty to record notice of the requirement that the property covered by this Ordinance be transferred only to a tax-paying entity, as set forth herein; in the Land Evidence Records or the City of Providence. Notwithstanding this provision, in the event that the successor to the property does not make the payments under the tax treaty, Roger Williams Realty Corp. will be responsible to make payments in lieu of taxes to the City of Providence in the amounts set forth in the attached schedule. In the event that the property covered by this Ordinance is transferred to a tax-exempt entity, whether by Roger Williams Realty Corp. or any subsequent transferee of such property, Roger Williams Realty Corp. will be responsible to make payments in lieu of taxes to the City of Providence equal to the amount of taxes which would have been paid to the City of Providence if such prohibition against transfer to a tax-exempt entity had not been violated. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in the tax treaty used in connection herewith, the provisions of this Section 2. shall continue to be given full force and effect until such time as the same shall be amended or terminated by majority vote of the City Council of Providence.

Section 3. It shall be the goal of Roger Williams Realty Corp. to award Minority Business Enterprises as defined in Rhode Island General Laws, Section 37-14.1 ("MBE Act") no less than 10% of the dollar value of the construction costs for the Project (as determined in accordance with the rules and regulations promulgated pursuant to the MBE act). It shall be Roger Williams Realty Corp.'s further goal to award to women business enterprises (WBE) no less than 10% of the dollar value of construction costs for the project (as determined in accordance with Section 21-52 of the Code of Ordinances of the City of Providence). It shall be a further goal of Roger Williams Realty Corp. to achieve a minimum level of 10% for minority and 10% for female employment.

Section 4. In making employment decisions, Roger Williams Realty Corp. shall give preferential consideration to qualified employees/applicants who reside in Providence.

Section 5. The schedule listed below is based upon information provided to the Tax Assessor by Roger Williams Realty Corp., including, but not limited to, estimated construction costs. In the event any of this information is inaccurate or proves to be erroneous, this treaty shall be modified to reflect the accurate information.

Section 6. That the real and personal property taxes payable to the City by the Project during the term of this Ordinance shall be based upon the real and personal property tax rates in effect for the City's 1996 fiscal year for the first phase of construction and the tax rate in effect in the 1997 fiscal year for the second phase. This treaty is conditioned upon Roger Williams Realty Corp. owing no back taxes to the City of Providence or remaining current on a payment plan approved by the Tax Collector. Failure to make said timely payments may render this treaty null and void at the sole discretion of the City of Providence. The treaty being rendered null and void would require the owner to pay all taxes and fees as due and owing as if no treaty had been approved.

Section 7. That the City, in accordance with Section 44-3-9 of the Rhode Island General Laws and Section 21-169 of the Code of Ordinances of the City of Providence, is hereby authorized to grant an exemption from the assessed valuation for tax purposes as of December 31, 1997 up to and including December 31, 2005 to The Village at Elmhurst, Roger Williams Realty Corp., located on Smith Street, Providence, Rhode Island, on a portion of Assessor's Plat 82, Lots 287, 288 and 331, as provided in the above-mentioned Ordinance, in accordance with the schedule in Exhibit A.

Section 8. It is the intention of the parties to amend this treaty to include the 23,000 square foot addition of 34 apartments. Upon approval, an initial tax payment of $5,787.00 must be paid in order to establish a level payment schedule with the first phase of the tax stabilization approved November 22, 1996.

Section 9. This Ordinance shall take effect upon its passage. This Ordinance amends Ordinance No. 633, Chapter 1996-54, approved November 22, 1996.

An Ordinance making an appropriation of One Hundred Seventy-Six Million, One Hundred Sixty-Five Thousand, Twenty-Four Dollars ($176,165,024.00) for the support of the Providence School Department for the Fiscal Year Ending June 30, 1998 and repealing Ordinance Chapter 1990-16, approved July 3, 1990, as amended.

PERSONAL EXPRESSION

COUNCILMAN CLARKIN requests the privilege of the floor to speak on a point of personal expression and states:

"Growing up in the Fox Point Neighborhood in the late 1940's and 1950's, I remember a neighborhood that was composed of various ethnic groups.

We had a large population of English, Cape Verdean, French, Irish, Portuguese and those of Lebanese backgrounds. Fox Point was a close, working class neighborhood. Then, in the 1960's due to the building of Interstate 195 and to redevelopment, vibrant sections of Fox Point were demolished, with whole families forced to move from the area. Many of those that moved were of Cape Verdean background.

Pike Street, a little side street, was located in one of those areas that was impacted by redevelopment. It was split into two parts with one section on each side of Interstate 195. One section of Pike Street only one house was left standing. It is the 75 year old Homestead of the Alves Family. A home that Maria Rosalina and Antonio Alves brought up their sixteen children in. One of those children, Dotty Ramos, whom I am sure most of you know, was a longtime City Worker.

For the last thirty years, the Alves have been the only family living on that section of Pike Street. Today, I ask this Council to join me in honoring the Alves Family by changing the name of that section of Pike Street to "Alves Way". By this renaming, we honor not only the Alves Family, but we also honor all those of Cape Verde background who presently live or have lived in the Fox Point Area.

Historically, Streets have been named for longtime residents. I believe that the Alves Family's 75 years entitle them to this honor. Thank you."

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES

COUNCILWOMAN JOSEPHINE DiRUZZO, Chairwoman COMMITTEE ON URBAN REDEVELOPMENT, RENEWAL AND PLANNING

Transmits the following with recommendation the same be severally Approved:

Resolution Authorizing the renaming of Broad Street School in honor of Alan Shawn Feinstein.

Whereas, Alan Shawn Feinstein, a leader in our community, dedicated to improving education in our inner city schools has established a close association with the students, faculty and parents of Broad Street School; and

Whereas, Alan Shawn Feinstein is donating $500,000 to the Providence School Department with $100,000 of that amount restricted for the betterment of Broad Street Elementary School serving students in Kindergarten through Grade 5; and

Whereas, It is the desire of Mayor Cianci, the principal, faculty, staff and the Broad Street School Community to rename the school to pay tribute to Alan Shawn Feinstein, whose commitment to the children there is generous and genuinely expressed, as he forges an even closer relationship with the school on behalf of its students.

Now, therefore, be it Resolved, That the Providence School Board authorizes the renaming of Broad Street Elementary School as the Alan Shawn Feinstein Elementary School.

Resolution Requesting the Department of Planning and Development to establish a Revitalization Plan for the Chalkstone Avenue Commercial District in the Mount Pleasant Neighborhood.

Resolved, That the Department of Planning and Development is requested to establish a Revitalization Plan for the Chalkstone Avenue Commercial District in the Mount Pleasant Neighborhood.
