Mr. D. Everett Whelan
 City Clerk
 City Hall
 Providence, Rhode Island

Dear Mr. Whelan:

Thank you for your recent letter and copy of the resolution of the City Council concerning the designation of Roger Williams Spring as a national park.

As you know, Senator Pastore and I sponsored a bill, S. 1679, to provide for the establishment of the Roger Williams national monument at the Town Spring in Providence. The bill was referred to and is presently pending in the Interior Committee.

I am forwarding a copy of the City Council's resolution to the Committee and hope that favorable action will be taken eventually on this proposal.

I appreciate your writing me, and hope you will continue to do so on other matters of mutual interest.

Warm regards.

Sincerely,
