

RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL

No. 406

Approved June 23, 2000

RESOLVED, That Sincere Congratulations are hereby extended to Detective Hugh T. Clements, Jr., upon receiving the Chief's Award, who during the month of December 1991, worked in an undercover capacity to buy high powered rifles from a drug addicted armed convicted felon. During the month long investigation Detective Clements gained the suspects confidence and purchased six rifles while at personal risk. His actions resulted in the suspects arrest.

No. 407

Approved June 23, 2000

RESOLVED, That Sincere Congratulations are hereby extended to Detective Patricia L. Cornell, upon receiving the Chief's Award, who on August 28, 1999, responded to Mitchell Street to process a murder scene, and upon arriving on scene learned the victim was shot to death and the suspect vehicle abandoned on Whitney Street, Detective Cornell processed both scenes, but it was the burned out vehicle on Whitney Street that proved the most difficult yet yielded the identity of the assailant. Latent prints were lifted from the wet, burned out vehicle which matched the suspect and led to his arrest and murder charge.

No. 408

Approved June 23, 2000

RESOLVED, That Sincere Congratulations are hereby extended to Officer Jose L. Deschamps, upon receiving the Chief's Award, who on November 25, 1997, responded into the Hartford Avenue area for a report of a shooting. Officer Deschamps began to search for the subject and alerted local businesses of the incident. At this time he observed a suspect using a pay telephone and approached the suspect. The subjects identity was confirmed, and he was taken into custody and a loaded handgun seized from his waist band. The suspect was later charged with murder.

No. 409

Approved June 23, 2000

RESOLVED, That Sincere Congratulations are hereby extended to Detective Robert J. Fitzpatrick, upon receiving the Chief's Award, who on July 26, 1999, monitored a broadcast for an armed robbery of a variety store in Olneyville Square. Detective Fitzpatrick began searching and observed a subject whose actions appeared suspicious. Detective Fitzpatrick took up a fixed position and monitored this suspects activity. The detective heard a small explosion and saw smoke come out of the bag the suspect was holding. The detective approached the suspect and arrested him while seizing a loaded .357 caliber hand gun and the fruits of the robbery reported earlier.
