PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

COUNCILMAN CLARKIN requests the privilege of the Floor to speak on a point of personal privilege:

"Snow, there is snow especially at this time of year. It is normal, It is also normal that the snow be plowed and the streets be plowed clear.

This last snow storm, however, I was very disappointed and I received many calls about the poor conditions of the streets, those that were plowed were only plowed once down in the center of the road.

I believe that they are trying to save money on the overtime. We pay the Fire Department One Million Dollars in overtime.

If we spent a little less money on the Fire Department and more on snow removal there would have been a much better job done."

RECAPITULATION OF VOTE:Absent: 1.*Ayes: 13.*The motion for Passage the Second Time,

The Following Ordinance was in City Council January 3, 1994, Read and Passed the First Time, as Amended and is Returned for Passage the Second Time, as Amended:

An Ordinance Ordering Termination of Certain Cost of Living Adjustments (COLA) and Other Benefits for Retirees, as Amended.

Whereas, The Employee Retirement Board (Retirement Board) of the City of Providence at a meeting of December 6, 1989, voted (5 to 4) to the effect that:

a) The city would be liable for any deficiency in any member's individual retirement allowance resulting from the city's failure to deduct eight percent (8%) of the member's compensation;

b) All Class A employees and all beneficiaries of Class A employees who retired or died prior to January 1, 1990 would on February 1, 1990, receive a cost of living retirement adjustment in the amount equal to three percent (3%) of the retirement allowance, and would receive an additional three percent (3%) in each succeeding year;

c) All Class A employees and all beneficiaries of Class A employees who retire or die on or after January 1, 1990 would on the first day of January next following the first anniversary date of such retirement, receive a cost of living retirement adjustment in the amount equal to three percent (3%) of the retirement allowance, and would receive an additional three percent (3%) in each succeeding year thereafter;

d) The minimum age for service retirement for

Class A employees would be age 55 or the age at which 20 years is complete;

e) All retired Class B employees and all beneficiaries of Class B employees who have retired or have died, would on the first day of January of the year following the date of retirement or decease, receive a cost of living retirement adjustment in the amount equal to six percent (6%) of the retirement allowance and would receive an additional six percent (6%) in each succeeding year thereafter;

f) All retired Class B employees and all beneficiaries of Class B employees who have retired or have died, would have a minimum pension of 1,000.00 per month; and

Whereas, Subsequent to said vote of the Retirement Board (December 6, 1989), an action entitled City of Providence, et al v. The Employee Retirement Board of Providence, et al, C.A. 90-2119, was commenced in the Superior Court, Providence County. As a result of said litigation (C.A. 90-2119), a certain consent decree was entered by the Court on December 18, 1991, purporting to incorporate the provisions voted by the Retirement Board on December 6, 1989 by amending Sections 9(1)(c), 9(15)(a)(b) and Section 17 of Chapter 489 of Rhode Island Public Laws of 1923; and

Whereas, The validity and legality of the aforesaid consent decree has been challenged by litigation pending in the Superior Court entitled Charles R. Mansolillo, in his capacity as City Solicitor, et al v. The Employee Retirement Board of the City of Providence, C.A. 93-5277. Said litigation was commenced by the City Solicitor at the request of the City Council; and

Whereas, Said pending litigation (C.A. 93-5277) may be protracted and as a consequence of such delay in final adjudication of said action irreparable harm will result in the absence of some intervening legislative action by the City Council; and

Whereas, This City Council declares that the purported amendments to Section 9(1)(c), 9(15)(a)(b) and Section 17 to the Providence Retirement Act (Chapter 489 P.L. 1923) by the Consent Decree in C.A. 90-2119 are and have been an infringement upon the legislative function prerogative and jurisdiction belonging to the City Council and not to the Retirement Board or the judicial branch of government; and

Whereas, The City Council deems it to be in the best interest of the City of Providence, its taxpayers and citizens to take immediate legislative action;

Now, therefore, be it Ordained by the City of Providence:

Section 1. That the actions of the Retirement Board at its meeting on December 6, 1989, as hereinabove delineated as "a" through "f", and the purported amendments to Sections 9(1)(c), 9(15)(a)(b) and Section 17 of Chapter 489 P.L. 1923 contained in the Consent Decree entered by the Superior Court on December 18, 1991 in City of Providence, et al v. The Employee Retirement Board, et al, C.A. 90-2119, which have not been ordained by the City Council, are of no force and effect; and that all payments of COLA and other benefits as provided in said Consent Decree are hereby ordered terminated.

Section 2. This Ordinance shall become effective upon passage.

Resolution Congratulating Mary Evelyn Nerone Upon Her Retirement.

Whereas, While most mothers would say they had enough mothering after nine children, Evelyn

"adopted" the entire student bodies of Brown University and Providence College during her career as a student health nurse, and

Whereas, Evelyn began her career as an Occupational Health Nurse at Uniroyal and came to Women and Infants in October 1975. She is a certified Sign Language Instructor and has been elected to the Board of Directors of the Rhode Island Association of Occupational Health Nurses, and

Whereas, At Women and Infants, Evelyn Nerone has served an entire generation of employees, providing them with a warm welcome at their pre-employment physical, following up with their required physicals and immunizations, and tending to their illnesses in a warm and professional manner which truly inspires other caregivers,

Now, therefore, be it Resolved, That the Members of the City Council join the many friends of Evelyn Nerone in congratulating her on what is commonly referred to as "retirement" but in Evelyn's case, will probably be a start of yet another career.
