Resolution endorsing House Bill 90-H 8890 entitled: "An Act relating to business and professions — motor vehicle repair shops".

Whereas, Representative Jeremiah P. Murphy and others have introduced legislation entitled "An Act Relating to Businesses and Professions — Motor Vehicle Repair Shops", and

Whereas, this Act would allow the City Council of the City of Providence to provide by ordinance for the issuing and revocation in its discretion of licenses to all establishments doing repairs or repair work to any type of motor vehicle, and

Whereas, the Act would further provide for a public hearing, with notice given to owners of property within 200 feet, prior to the issuance of any car-repair license, and

Whereas, the number of businesses involved in vehicle repair has increased dramatically in the city,

Whereas, with the advent of the "self-serve" gas station, many smaller gas stations have abandoned their gas pumps and expanded their repair activities, and many new vehicle-repair businesses have been established in this community, and

Whereas, the city has traditionally regulated and licensed gas stations and the state has regulated auto body repair shops, but those businesses which do not sell gasoline or do body work have not been regulated by either the state or the city,

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, That the City Council of the City of Providence urges the General Assembly to enact that legislation entitled "An Act Relating to Businesses and Professions — Motor Vehicle Repair Shops".

COUNCILMAN GLAVIN moves that the Resolution be amended by inserting the following:

"4. and indemnify and hold harmless said Plaintiffs, from any legal or equitable actions arising from, or in relation to, said transations or related events."

This motion being seconded by COUNCILMAN DILLON is put to vote and passed.

Whereas, there has been filed in Providence County Superior Court, a legal action entitled: "CITY OF PROVIDENCE, et al. vs. MAURICE A. BISSONNETTE, et al., in Their Capacities as Members of the Employees Retirement Board, and STEPHEN T. NAPOLITANO, in His Capacity as the Treasurer of the City of Providence"; and

Whereas, said lawsuit is intended as a substitute to the previous legal action filed, entitled "JEROME J. BARON, et al. vs. STEPHEN T. DAY, et al., C.A. 89-7084"; and

Whereas, said substitute lawsuit arises out of the numerous controversies regarding actions taken by the Employees' Retirement Board of the City of Providence; and

Whereas, the City Council believes that it is in the overall best interest of the City of Providence to dismiss the original lawsuit and to proceed with the substitute lawsuit, and to pay for the legal representation on behalf of the named Plaintiffs in the substituted lawsuit, and to provide a mechanism for said payment.

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, That the City Council, under the authority granted under Section 401 (d) of the Home Rule Charter of the City of Providence does, by at least a 2/3rd vote of all the Members of said City Council, authorize that

1. the legal action entitled "JEROME I. BARON, et al. vs. STEPHEN T. DAY, et al." may be dismissed.

2. that the legal action entitled "CITY OF PROVIDENCE, et al. vs. MAURICE A. BIS-

SONNETTE, et als." may be substituted in place of "BARON et al. vs. DAY, et al."

3. that legal counsel may submit his bills for payment to the Chairman of the Finance Committee or his designee.

4. and indemnify and hold harmless said Plaintiffs, from any legal or equitable actions arising from, or in relation to, said transactions or related events.
