STATE OF RHODE ISLAND AND PROVIDENCE PLANTATIONS

CHAPTER 911

No. 604 AN ORDINANCE REQUIRING THE REGISTRATION OF IDENTIFICATION MARKS BY ALL LAUNDRY AND DRY-CLEANING ESTABLISHMENTS
LOCATED IN THE CITY OF PROVIDENCE.

Approved December 6, 1954

Be it ordained by the City of Providence:

SECTION 1. Each person, firm or corporation conducting a laundry or dry-cleaning establishment, or offering as an independent contractor the services of such an establishment, shall report to the Commissioner of Public Safety for the City of Providence, on forms supplied by said Commissioner, the type and style of laundry or dry-cleaning identification marks which are attached to or stamped on or written upon garments processed by such establishment when returned to the customer. Such report shall be accompanied by actual samples of the identification markings used. Each such person, firm or corporation shall make such report immediately upon entering the business of laundry or dry cleaning. Any change in identification marking systems, either by eliminating such marking or changing the system of identification marking used, shall be reported to the Commissioner immediately. Each such laundry, dry-cleaning establishment or independent contractor shall retain customer records for a period of not less than six (6) months from the time the garments are delivered to the customer. Any person, firm or corporation violating any provision of this Ordinance shall, upon conviction, be fined up to the sum of one hundred ($100) dollars or imprisoned for not more than thirty (30) days for each offense, or, in the discretion of the court, shall be subject to both said fine and said imprisonment for each offense.

SEC. This Ordinance shall take effect upon its passage, and all Ordinances or parts thereof inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.
