STATE OF RHODE ISLAND AND PROVIDENCE PLANTATIONS

---

CHAPTER 2009-41

No. 340

AN ORDINANCE IN AMENDMENT OF THE CODE OF ORDINANCES, CHAPTER 13 ENTITLED "HOUSING," ARTICLE X ENTITLED "RESPONSIBILITIES OF OWNERS, OPERATORS AND OCCUPANTS," TO ADD SECTIONS 13-213 THROUGH 13-217

Approved JULY 27, 2009

Be it ordained by the City of Providence:

WHEREAS, The number of foreclosures nationally soared in 2007, with 405, 000 households losing their homes – an increase of 51 percent over 2006 levels; and

WHEREAS, In the City of Providence, foreclosure rates have dramatically increased, from 303 in 2006, more than doubling to 718 in 2007, and numbering 1158 by October, 2008; and

WHEREAS, The City of Providence and communities across this country have been devastated by the foreclosure crises, leaving many neighborhoods with neglected and abandoned housing, declining property values and rising crime as a result, affecting urban as well as rural areas and homeowners as well as renters; and

WHEREAS, The State of Rhode Island presently has an unemployment rate of 10% with more than 50,000 individuals out of work and deprived of adequate resources to meet their financial obligations; and

WHEREAS, Providence residents, many of whom have recently joined the corps of the unemployed, are finding it increasingly difficult to meet their residential mortgage obligations, frequently leading to foreclosure actions by their lenders; and

WHEREAS, Sub prime loans and predatory lending practices, compounded by a lack of government oversight, have disproportionately impacted low income families and minorities; and

WHEREAS, The enormity of this foreclosure crisis has resulted in eroding property values directly and significantly impacting the quality of life in the City's neighborhoods, reducing the tax base of local government and imposing increasing costs to city budgets already heavily burdened by a weakened economy; and

WHEREAS, The City of Providence determines that it is in the best interests of its citizens and the overall public welfare to establish regulations requiring foreclosing lenders to participate in an attempt to conciliate the default, under the jurisdiction and guidance of a HUD-approved independent counseling agency, prior to the recording of any deed associated with the foreclosure.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the City Council of the City of Providence amends the Code of Ordinances to add the following sections to Chapter 13, Article X:

SECTION 1.

Sec. 13-214. Statement of Policy.

It is hereby declared that residential mortgage foreclosure actions, caused in part by so-called sub-prime mortgage lending and predatory lending practices as well as rising interest rates, unemployment and underemployment, have negatively impacted a substantial number of homeowners in the City, creating a foreclosure crisis which endangers the economic stability of the City and the health and safety of its citizens, as the increasing numbers of foreclosures lead to increases in unoccupied and unattended buildings in the City and give impetus to the continuation, extension and aggravation of urban blight and decay. More importantly, foreclosures cause the unnecessary and unwanted displacement of a considerable number of homeowners and tenants who desire to live and work in the City.

Sec. 13-215. Purpose.

The City's purpose in Sections 13-213 through 13-217, inclusive, is to protect the public health, safety and welfare by providing early, HUD-approved independent counseling agency-supervised intervention in residential owner-occupied mortgage foreclosure cases which will assure timely determination of eligibility under various federal, state and local programs established to facilitate loan work-out and other solutions to permit residential homeowners, where possible, to retain their properties and permit lenders to move forward to auction/sale of the properties and recordation of a foreclosure deed upon conclusion of the process.
