Re: Resolution No. 161 of the City Council Dated March 12, 1981

Dear Ms. Mendonca:

I have recently received your letter dated March 23 which brought to my attention the Resolution of the City Council requesting that Old Stone Bank waive its tax exemption for "Biltmore Properties". Specifically, the Resolution asks the Outlet Company, the Old Stone Bank, Textron, Inc., and other equity participants to waive all tax exemptions granted to them under the Tax Stabilization Plan approved by the City Council on January 29, 1976.

It appears that a misconception exists on the part of the Providence City Council regarding the ownership of the Biltmore Hotel property. Although Old Stone Bank did participate as a lender in the purchase and rehabilitation of the Biltmore, at no time was the Old Stone Bank either an owner or an equity participant in the property. Therefore, it is impossible for us to act on the request made in Resolution No. 161.

It is our understanding that the Biltmore Hotel is owned by Biltmore Hotel Associates, a limited partnership whose general partners are subsidiaries of Textron, Inc., The Outlet Company, The Providence Journal Company, and the Business Development Company of Rhode Island.

If I may be of any further assistance, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Very truly yours,
