SECTION 61 The number of employees in the Office of the Mayor shall not be limited. The Mayor may appoint without reference to civil service provisions and without the necessity for approval by the City Council a Chief of Staff and such Deputies, Assistant's, Aides, Secretaries, Stenographers, Clerks and other personnel as he may deem necessary not to exceed the annual appropriation by the City Council.

SECTION 62 No person shall be appointed to, and the City Treasurer shall not pay, nor shall an officer or employee of the city issue a check for the payment of, nor pay any salary or compensations to a person holding or claiming to hold a position in the classified service in any department which is in excess of the total number of funded positions or the number of any individual class of positions provided herein for the particular department; provided, however, that with the approval of the department head and the Director of Finance, said maximum may be exceeded temporarily when regular employees are absent on vacation and the excess employees do not aggregate more than the number on vacation or during the absence of employees, due to injuries received while discharging their duties as employees or during absences of employees on sick leave, and it is necessary to employ temporary employees for the duration of the employee's sick leave, or during the absence of employees who have been granted a temporary leave of absence or when in the opinion of the Director of Finance, a temporary emergency exists, provided the City Council has received prior written notification by the personnel director:

SECTION 63 Where no maximum limit is fixed on the total number of positions or the number of any individual class of positions in a department, the number of persons appointed and employees shall be determined by the unexpended appropriation available.

SECTION 64 Chapter 1999-24 of the Ordinances of the City of Providence approved August 5, 1999, with all amendments and additions thereto, is hereby repealed and all other Ordinances or parts thereof inconsistent herewith are likewise repealed.

SECTION 65 The provisions of this ordinance shall not be construed as a ratification of any collective bargaining agreement.

SECTION 66 The additional 30 police officer positions funded in this budget shall only be permitted for appointment in the patrol division of the department and under no circumstances shall reduce the staff compliment of the patrol division based on the authorized number of positions effective July 1, 2000.

SECTION 67 This Ordinance shall take effect upon its passage.
