Report of Independent Auditors

Honorable Mayor and Members of the City Council
City of Providence, RI

We have audited the general purpose financial statements of the City of Providence, Rhode Island and the individual fund financial statements, other than the financial statements of the Providence Public Building Authority, of the City as of and for the year ended June 30, 1992, as listed in the table of contents. These financial statements are the responsibility of the City's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We did not audit the financial statements of the Providence Public Building Authority, which statements reflect total assets of $71,884,149 as of June 30, 1992, and total revenues and other financing sources of $24,372,925 for the year then ended. Those financial statements were audited by other auditors whose report has been furnished to us and was qualified due to the omission from the financial statements of a general fixed assets account group. Our opinion on the general purpose financial statements, insofar as it relates to the amounts included for the Providence Public Building Authority, is based solely on the report of the other auditors.

We conducted our audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit and the report of other auditors provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

As more fully described in Note 1, the general purpose financial statements do not include a general fixed assets account group which should be included to conform with generally accepted accounting principles. The amount that should be recorded in the general fixed assets account group is not known.

City of Providence, Rhode Island

Notes to Financial Statements

June 30, 1992

1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

General

The City of Providence, Rhode Island, a tax-exempt entity, operates under a Mayor-Council form of government. A Home Rule Charter was adopted in November 1980 and became fully effective on January 3, 1983. The Mayor is elected by the voters of the City to a four-year term. City Council members are also elected to four year terms, which run concurrent with the term of the Mayor. Most department heads and other City officials are appointed by the Mayor.

The accounting policies of the City of Providence conform to generally accepted accounting principles, as applicable to governmental units, except the general purpose financial statements and the Providence Public Building Authority do not include a general fixed assets account group, as required by generally accepted accounting principles.

In determining which agencies, departments and other types of entities to include as component units in the City of Providence general purpose financial statements, the exercise of oversight responsibility by the City or its elected officials is considered. Criteria utilized in determining oversight responsibility includes financial interdependency, selection of governing authority, designation of management, ability to significantly influence operations and accountability for fiscal matters.

Basis of Presentation - Fund Accounting

The accounts of the City are organized on the basis of funds or account groups, each of which is considered a separate accounting entity. The operations of each fund are accounted for with a separate set of self-balancing accounts that comprise total assets, liabilities, fund balance/retained earnings, revenues and expenditures/expenses. The following fund types and account group are used by the City:

A. Governmental Fund Types

Governmental funds are those through which most governmental functions of the City are financed. The acquisition, use and remaining balance of the City's expendable financial resources and most related current liabilities are accounted for through governmental funds. The measurement focus for governmental funds is determination of financial position and changes in financial position, rather than the determination of net income. The following identifies the City's governmental fund types:

1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

General Fund

This fund is the City's general operating fund. It is used to account for all financial resources except those required to be accounted for in other funds.

Special Revenue Funds

These funds are used to account for the proceeds from specific revenue sources (other than special assessments, expendable trusts, or major capital projects) that are legally restricted to expenditures for specified purposes.

Under the Charter of the City, the School Fund is set up as a separate special revenue fund accountable for appropriations made to it by the General Fund and revenue receipts specifically pertaining to school activities. Under this system, any excess of revenues over expenditures reverts to the City's General Fund, and any excess of expenditures over revenues is a liability of the City's General Fund. Therefore, the School Fund has no fund balance.

Capital Project Funds

These funds are used to account for expenditures for the acquisition or construction of major capital facilities.

B. Proprietary Fund Types

These funds account for the City's ongoing organizations and activities which are similar to those found in the private sector. The proprietary funds' measurement focus is determination of net income. The City maintains the following proprietary fund types:

1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Enterprise Funds

These funds are used to account for City operations that are financed and operated in a manner similar to private business enterprise. The intent is that the costs and expenses, including depreciation, of providing goods or services to the general public on a continuing basis, be financed or recovered primarily through user charges. Enterprise funds are also used where the City has decided that periodic determination of revenues earned, expenses incurred, and/or net income is appropriate for capital maintenance, public policy, management control, accountability, or other purposes.

Internal Service Funds

These funds are used to account for the financing of goods or services between City departments or agencies, or to other governmental units, on a cost reimbursement basis.

C. Fiduciary Fund Types

These funds are used to account for assets held by the City in a trustee capacity or as an agent for individuals, private organizations, other governmental units, or other funds.

Fiduciary Funds include expendable, nonexpendable, agency and retirement trust funds. Expendable trust funds are accounted for as governmental funds. Nonexpendable and retirement trust funds are accounted for as proprietary funds, since capital maintenance is critical. Agency funds are purely custodial and do not involve the measurement of operating results.

D. Account Group: General Long-term Obligations

This group of accounts is established to account for all long-term obligations of the City, not requiring an appropriation or expenditure during the current fiscal period. Long-term obligations include bonds, previously appropriated pension contributions which have been deferred to future years, compensated absences and long-term capital lease obligations.

E. Providence Public Building Authority (PBA)

The PBA was established to acquire, construct, maintain, renovate, repair and operate public facilities and public equipment through the use of public financing (see Note 16).

1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Basis of Accounting

The modified accrual basis of accounting is followed by the governmental, expendable trust and agency funds. Under this basis of accounting, revenues are recorded when susceptible to accrual; both measurable and available. Available means collectible within the current period or soon enough thereafter to be used to pay liabilities of the current period (see Note 2 for property tax accrual policy). Expenditures, other than interest on long-term debt, are recorded when the liability is incurred.

In applying the susceptible to accrual concept to intergovernmental revenues, the legal and contractual requirements of the numerous individual programs are used as guidance. There are essentially two types of these revenues. In one, revenues are recognized based upon the expenditures recorded. Funds will not be paid to the City until qualifying expenditures have been made. In the other, monies are reflected as revenues at the time of receipt, or earlier, if the susceptible to accrual criteria are met. These resources are virtually unrestricted as to the purpose of the expenditure and are usually revocable only for failure to comply with prescribed compliance requirements.

Licenses, permits, charges for services, fines, forfeits and miscellaneous revenues are recorded as revenues when cash is received because they are generally not measurable at an earlier time.

Revenues and expenses of nonexpendable trust, pension trust funds, and proprietary fund types are primarily recognized on the accrual basis.

Budgetary Data

The City employs the following procedures in establishing the General Fund budgetary data reflected in the general purpose financial statements:

A. At least sixty days prior to July 1, the Mayor submits a proposed operating budget for the upcoming fiscal year to the City Council. The operating budget includes proposed expenditures and the means of financing them. The council may alter the Mayor's proposed expenditures, but may not cause an excess of appropriations over expected revenues.

1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

B. The final budget is legally enacted through passage of an ordinance.

C. The Mayor is authorized to make minor transfers of budgeted amounts between departments. Significant budget revisions or transfers must be approved by the City Council.

The actual amounts are presented in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, the method employed in preparation of the budget. The Special Revenue Fund amounts include those of the Unrestricted School Fund and the Area Vocation and Section IV Restricted School Funds. Other Special Revenue Funds do not have legally adopted budgets and are excluded.

The budget for the Unrestricted School Fund is prepared annually and approved by the Providence School Board. The amount of the annual transfer from the General Fund is ultimately determined through the adoption of the General Fund budget. This appropriation does not lapse at year end.

Cash Equivalents

The City considers all highly liquid investments purchased within three months of maturity to be cash equivalents. The City also considers repurchase agreements with a maturity of one week or less to be cash equivalents.

Encumbrances

Encumbrances do not constitute expenditures or liabilities. Governmental fund types employ encumbrance accounting to record purchase orders, contracts and other commitments for the expenditure of funds in order to establish a reserve against the applicable appropriation. Open encumbrances are reported as reservations of fund balances since the commitments will be honored from subsequent years' budget appropriations.

City of Providence, Rhode Island

1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Investments

Debt securities of the Retirement Fund are stated at cost, adjusted for amortization of premium and accretion of discount. Equity securities of the Retirement Fund are stated at cost. Investments of other funds are stated at cost which approximates market.

Allowance for Possible Loan Losses

The allowance for possible loan losses is maintained at a level believed adequate by management to absorb potential losses for outstanding loans. Management's determination of the adequacy of the allowance is based on an evaluation of the portfolio, past loan loss experience, and current economic conditions.

Reserved Fund Balances

Reserved fund balances represent amounts which are not available for appropriation or which are legally reserved for a specific purpose.

Interfund transfers

All City interfund transfers are operating transfers. Accordingly, all interfund transfers are reported as other financing sources (uses) in the combined statement of revenues, expenditures and changes in fund balance.

Vacations and Sick Leave

Under the terms of various contracts and policies, City employees are granted vacation and sick leave based on length of service. The City's policy is to recognize the cost of vacation and sick leave in governmental funds when paid and on the accrual basis in proprietary funds. The amount of earned but unpaid vacation and sick leave relating to governmental fund employees is recognized as a noncurrent obligation in the general long-term obligations group of accounts.

Self Insurance

The City is self-insured for general liability claims, workers' compensation claims of most governmental fund employees and property losses to certain real estate and equipment. The City's policy is to recognize the cost of these claims when they are expected to be liquidated with expendable available financial resources.

1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Litigation and Related Matters

Liabilities for legal cases and other claims against governmental funds are recorded when the ultimate liability can be estimated and such cases are expected to be liquidated with expendable available financial resources (payable within one year). Remaining claims against governmental funds, which can be estimated, but are not expected to be liquidated with expendable available resources, are recorded in the general long-term obligations group of accounts. Proprietary fund types record these liabilities using the accrual basis of accounting.

Amounts to be Provided

Amounts to be provided represent monies to be raised from future tax levies and future reimbursements from other governments to retire general long-term obligations.

Inventory and Supplies

Proprietary fund inventory is stated at the lower of cost or market using the weighted average method. Inventory consists primarily of materials and supplies. Inventory and supplies are not maintained in governmental funds, but are recorded as expenditures at the time of purchase.

Property, Plant and Equipment - Enterprise Funds

Property, plant and equipment of the enterprise funds is stated at cost. Depreciation is taken on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives. Assets acquired by the Providence Water Supply Board through contributions are recorded at contributor's reported cost. Depreciation on Providence Civic Center assets acquired with contributed capital is recognized as an operating expense and then charged against contributed capital.

The estimated useful lives are as follows:

	Civic Center Authority	Water Supply Board
Buildings, source of supply structures and improvements	10 - 30 years	50 - 150 years
Improvements, other than buildings	-	75 - 100 years
Furnishings and equipment	3 - 20 years	3 - 40 years

Total (Memorandum Only)

These totals are the aggregate of the fund types, account group and the PBA. No consolidating or eliminating entries were made in arriving at these totals. As a result, they do not represent consolidated information and are shown only in memorandum form.

2. Property Taxes and Other Charges for Services

The City's property tax is levied each year based on the assessed property value, as of the prior December 31, for all real property, tangible property, equipment and motor vehicles located in the City. Assessed values of real property were established by the City Assessor's office at 100% of appraised market value, based on the 1987 valuation less Homestead exemptions for 1-6 unit dwellings. Assessed values of tangible property and equipment and motor vehicles are determined annually at 100% of market value.

The 1990 taxable assessments and the fiscal 1992 tax rate and gross levy are as follows (in thousands):

	Taxable Assessment	Exemptions	Net Taxable Assessment	Rate per $1,000	Gross Levy
Real property	$5,480,788	$1,310,147	$4,170,641	$28.17	$117,487
Tangible property	529,105	-	529,105	67.77	35,857
Motor vehicle	296,240	2,006	294,234	67.77	19,940

Payments on the gross levy are due in equal quarterly installments in July, October, January and April. Property taxes attach as an enforceable lien on property when levied.

The City recognizes property and excise tax revenues on the modified accrual basis. Only those property tax and excise tax payments due as of the end of the current fiscal year and collected within the current fiscal year or reasonably thereafter, usually 60 days, are recognized as revenue of the current fiscal year, net of cash abatements paid. All uncollected property taxes as of the end of the fiscal year are recorded as receivables. Those taxes not collected within 60 days subsequent to year end are recorded as deferred revenue, even if the eventual collection appears likely. If collection appears unlikely an allowance for doubtful accounts is established.

2. Property Taxes and Other Charges for Services (continued)

Water Fees

Revenues from charges for services of the Providence Water Supply Board are recognized on the accrual basis, net of estimated uncollectibles. Depending upon consumption, metered water sale customers are billed monthly, quarterly or annually for water usage, in arrears, and a year in advance for water service fees. Yearly billing cycles are on a staggered basis throughout the fiscal year. Large commercial customers and other local water suppliers are billed more frequently. All charges are based on billing rates authorized by the State of Rhode Island Public Utilities Commission.

The Fox Point Neighborhood Housing Corporation loan, which was originally made for $500,000 on May 8, 1985, was to finance the development of a 26 unit limited equity housing cooperative. In accordance with the terms of the loan agreement, $250,000 of the original loan became a grant when permanent project financing was obtained. The remaining $250,000 loan balance is to be repaid from excess cash flow at an interest rate of 5% per year. No interest or principal has been paid by the Corporation to date. 6. Loans Receivable (continued)

Security for the above loans includes first or second mortgages on property and liens on equipment and other real estate. Future proceeds from the repayment of principal and interest on loans must be expended by the Department of Planning and Development on eligible community development projects.

B. Special Revenue Fund - Providence Economic Development Corporation

The Corporation is not-for-profit and was created to foster economic growth in Providence, as well as assist and attract industrial, manufacturing and other commercial enterprises to the City. At June 30, 1992, the Corporation had loans receivable, net of allowances for possible loan losses of $2,160,000, from approximately 180 businesses or individuals amounting to $5,052,589. The loan terms and amounts are determined on a case by case basis.

Security for these loans includes first and second mortgages, property and equipment and other real estate.

C. Fiduciary Fund - Retirement System

Members of the Employees' Retirement System of the City of Providence who have completed 3 years of service may borrow up to 50% of their contributions. The loans accrue interest at 6% and are repaid through payroll deduction. Any unpaid balance is settled before the individual receives any retirement benefits. Loans are restricted to medical emergencies and home improvements. Loans receivable from employees was $8,371,824 at June 30, 1992.

7. Long-term Obligations

Debt Limit

Except as explained below, under Rhode Island law the City may not, without special statutory authorization, incur any debt which would increase its aggregate indebtedness not otherwise excepted by law to an amount greater than 3% of the taxable property of the City. Deducted from the computation of aggregate indebtedness is the amount of any borrowing in anticipation of taxes authorized by law and the amount of any sinking funds maintained by the City. The current outstanding debt of the City subject to the 3% debt limit is $65,345,507 and the current 3% debt limit of the City is $149,819,400 based on taxable property as of December 31, 1990, of $4,993,979,972, leaving a remaining borrowing capacity of $84,473,893.

7. Long-term Obligations (continued)

The State of Rhode Island General Assembly (General Assembly) may, by special act, permit the City to incur indebtedness outside the 3% debt limit. Bonds issued either within the 3% debt limit or by special legislation adopted by the General Assembly authorizing the City to incur debt are subject to referendum by the electors of the City. On June 30, 1992, the total outstanding debt of the City issued outside the 3% debt limit was $57,274,271, excluding water bonds and sewer bonds deemed self-supporting.

In addition to debt authorized within the 3% debt limit and debt authorized by special act of the General Assembly, Rhode Island General Laws Section 45-12-11 authorizes the State Director of Administration, upon petition by a municipality, to authorize such municipality to incur indebtedness in excess of the 3% debt limit whenever the Director shall determine that the sums appropriated by the municipality or its funds available are insufficient to pay the necessary expenses of the municipality. The City has not requested the State Director of Administration to authorize indebtedness of the City under Section 45-12-11.

Bonds Payable and Bond Anticipation Notes

The following is a summary of the City's bond transactions for the year ended June 30, 1992 (in thousands):

	June 30 1991	Debt Issued	Debt Retired	June 30 1992

On September 1, 1991, the City issued $30,750,000 in General Obligation Bonds to advance refund the $28,555,000 of outstanding General Obligation - Refunding Bonds dated October 1, 1986. The net proceeds of $30,074,000 (after payment of $676,000 in underwriting fees, insurance and other issuance costs) were deposited with an escrow agent under a Refunding Escrow Agreement dated September 1, 1991. The Escrow Agreement requires the escrow agent to use the amounts escrowed to purchase certain obligations of the United States Government. Amounts held by the escrow agent will be used to pay principal, interest and redemption premiums on the Refunded Bonds when

Included in the long-term obligations account group are $5,070,324 in General Obligation Bonds, for which the Narragansett Bay Commission has agreed to assume debt service pursuant to a 1982 agreement, whereby the City's Sewerage Treatment Facility was transferred to the Bay Commission. Under the agreement, the Bay Commission will reimburse the City for all principal and interest on the debt when it becomes due. The City, however, remains ultimately responsible for the timely payment of the issues.

Under the City Charter, proceeds from the sale of general fixed assets must be used to reduce or to finance capital improvements of the City. Funds available for this purpose amounted to $443,680 and are included in the Restricted Sales Proceeds Fund (an expendable fiduciary trust fund) at June 30, 1992.

Amount due to Employees' Retirement System

In 1982, the City agreed to contribute an unpaid appropriation to the Employees' Retirement System over a twenty-year period ending in 2001 with interest at 8 1/2%. This obligation is being paid in annual amounts of $514,238, including principal and interest. The remaining balance of the obligation is presented as an amount due to the Retirement System in the long-term obligation group of accounts. A corresponding receivable amount is recorded in the Retirement System Fund. The 1992 activity is as follows:

Balance at June 30, 1991	$3,374,094
Principal payments made during fiscal year 1992	227,441
Balance at June 30, 1992	$3,146,653

Other Noncurrent Liabilities

The following noncurrent liabilities are recorded in the long-term obligations group of accounts:

- i. Accumulated vacation and sick pay for governmental fund employees amounted to $17,019,592 at June 30, 1992.
- ii. The estimated liability for governmental fund employees workers' compensation claims, under the City's self-insurance program, amounted to $1,963,835 at June 30, 1992 (see Note 13).

8. Lease Commitments (continued)

The Department subleases the school administration building, other school buildings and modular classrooms from the City of Providence. The Department is required to make annual rental payments to the City of Providence in accordance with the lease agreements.

The Department's rent expense was approximately $4,835,000, of which approximately $4,475,000 relates to subleases with the City of Providence, for the year ended June 30, 1992.

9. Segment Information for Enterprise Funds

The City maintains two Enterprise Funds, the Providence Civic Center Authority and the Providence Water Supply Board.

A. Providence Water Supply Board

The Providence Water Supply Board was created in 1940 by Chapter 832 of the Public Laws of the State of Rhode Island. Membership of the Board is comprised of four persons appointed by the Mayor, who serve for 4-year staggered terms and two City Council members elected by the City Council, who serve during their 4-year City Council term. The Finance Director of the City of Providence also serves as an ex-officio Board member.

The Water Supply Board provides water supply services through metered sales in Providence and parts of the surrounding communities of North Providence, Johnston and Cranston. The Board also sells water to the other local water supply systems on a wholesale basis. The Board's source of water supply is the Scituate Reservoir, located in the Town of Scituate, Rhode Island, and five tributary reservoirs.

Activities of the Water Supply Board are governed by the regulations of the Public Utility Administrator of the State of Rhode Island. All water sale rates are established by the State of Rhode Island Public Utilities Commission.

Lease Agreements

On July 1, 1988, the City of Providence through its Water Supply Board entered into a lease agreement with the Rhode Island Water Resources Board, a component unit of the State of Rhode Island. Under the terms of the lease agreement, the Rhode Island Water Resources Board has issued bond anticipation notes and revenue bonds totaling $11,685,000 to finance the acquisition and construction of improvements and installation of certain water facilities located in the City of Providence and the Towns of Smithfield and North Providence, Rhode Island. The Water Supply Board has leased the project for the term which commenced on July 1, 1988, (coincident with the issuance of the Rhode Island Water Resources Board's bond anticipation notes) and expires on June 30, 2013.

Lease payments specified in the lease agreement call for the Water Supply Board to make a semiannual payment due in February and August of each year in an amount equal to the debt service requirements of the Rhode Island Water Resources Board as it pertains to the leased premises. In addition, the Water Supply Board has agreed to pay as lease payments the administrative costs incurred by the Rhode Island Water Resources Board. At the expiration of the lease term, the Providence Water Supply Board has the option to purchase the facilities for $1. This lease has been accounted for as capital lease.

To the extent that the construction of the assets is complete and in operation, the assets are depreciated under the Water Supply Board's normal depreciation policies for similar assets. Funds restricted for construction of assets under capital lease represent unexpended proceeds of bond anticipation notes and revenue bonds obtained specifically for construction of water facilities discussed above.

On April 20, 1990, the Water Supply Board entered into a lease agreement with Municipal Leasing Services, Inc. (lessor). Under the terms of the lease the Water Supply Board accepted delivery of vehicles at various points in time. The lease terms begin at delivery of the equipment and range from 3–5 years. Lease payments are required to be made on a monthly basis. At the end of the lease term the Water Supply Board will pay a concluding payment at which time lessor shall convey all rights and title to the equipment to the Water Supply Board. This lease has been accounted for as a capital lease. In 1992, equipment purchased under capital leases amounted to $122,475.

The City of Providence entered into a lease purchase agreement for the Water Supply Board in the amount of $173,000 on June 22, 1992, with Fleet National Bank. The agreement is secured with the assets purchased under the lease agreement. The cost of such assets is $173,000 at June 30, 1992. The agreement permits annual renewals for the 5-year period ending June 15, 1997, with payments of principal and interest on those renewal dates.

9. Segment Information for Enterprise Funds (continued)

Under the Agreement, the Water Supply Board has the right to purchase the assets on each renewal date for amounts specified in the Agreement. This lease has been accounted for as a capital lease. The assets become the property of the Water Supply Board upon completion of its obligation during the initial lease term and all renewal periods.

The assets and liabilities under the capital leases are recorded at the lesser of the present value of the minimum lease payments or the fair value of the asset. Amortization of assets under capital leases is included in amortization expense. Amortization of these assets charged to expense during the year ended June 30, 1992, was $296,547. Accumulated amortization related to these assets amounted to $642,132 at June 30, 1992.

Minimum future lease payments under capital leases as of June 30, 1992, for each of the next five fiscal years and in the aggregate are:

General Revenue Bonds

On June 14, 1990, the City of Providence, on behalf of the Water Supply Board, entered into a lease agreement with the Providence Public Building Authority (PPBA). That lease and agreement has been amended by a lease and agreement dated January 3, 1991, as of December 15, 1990. In connection with the lease and agreement (Scituate Reservoir Project), the PPBA issued $8,695,050 of revenue bonds to acquire land or land rights or physical improvements to acquired land to protect the quality of raw water of the Water Supply System. The bonds are to be repaid by the $.01 per hundred gallons Water Quality Protection Charge (see Water Quality Protection Charge).

Generally accepted accounting principles require recognition of assets and debt by state and local government lessees which enter into lease arrangements with a public authority which are part of the government unit's entity for financial reporting purposes. Accordingly, the debt and assets related to the Scituate Reservoir Project are included in the Water Supply Board's financial statements.

In addition, the $2,000,000 payment made by the Water Supply Board to the PPBA in connection with the Scituate Reservoir Project has also been capitalized.

Future general revenue bond service requirements, related to the Scituate Reservoir Project as of June 30, 1992, for each of the next five fiscal years and in aggregate are:

Fiscal Year Ended June 30	Principal	Interest	Total

On March 19, 1991, the City of Providence, on behalf of the Water Supply Board, entered into a lease and agreement with the Providence Public Buildings Authority (PPBA). This lease and agreement has been amended by the first amendment to lease and agreement, dated March 18, 1992. In connection with the lease and agreement, the PPBA, issued Revenue Bond Anticipation Notes 1992 Series I (notes) totaling $6,280,000, dated March 18, 1992 and due March 18, 1993. As of June 30, 1992, these anticipation notes have been included as debt in the PPBA's financial statements. Once the notes have been converted to general revenue bonds and it is the intent of the City to have the Water Supply Board meet the debt service requirements, this debt will be transferred from the PPBA to the Water Supply Board.

Transaction with the City of Providence

The City of Providence performs various services for the Water Supply Board including certain accounting, personnel and cash management services and working capital support. The total billing for City services amounted to $967,237. This amount is established by the City and approved by the Water Supply Board. The Water Supply Board also provides services to various City funds and departments, the charges for which have been included as revenue in the accompanying financial statements of the Water Supply Board. These revenues are not significant to total revenues.

The Water Supply Board does not maintain a cash account for its operations. All receipts and disbursements relating to Water Supply Board operations are recorded through the City's General Fund on behalf of the Water Supply Board. Cash activities are reflected by the Water Supply Board via the "Due to General Fund" general ledger account. As such, this account represents the Water Supply Board's net operating cash position.

On June 19, 1991, the Water Supply Board entered into a note agreement with the City of Providence. The note accrues interest at 7.5% per annum on the principal sum of $5,020,928 until the amount is paid in full. The note is to be repaid over a 2 1/2 year period from a surcharge of 8 cents per 100 cubic feet effective September 1, 1991.

City Surcharge

On August 1, 1991, the Water Supply Board filed with the Public Utilities Commission ("Commission") a surcharge tariff designed to collect the $5,020,928. All retail and wholesale customers are to be assessed at a rate of eight cents per hundred cubic feet of water billed commencing September 1, 1991. On April 24, 1992, the Commission approved a surcharge totaling $4,595,000. Of the approved surcharge only $1,346,449 was designated by the Commission to be used to pay off the note to the City of Providence. The balance of the surcharge amount is to be used for capital improvements, insurance and conservation studies. At June 30, 1992, net assets of approximately $945,000 relating to this surcharge are unexpended.

Restricted Assets

The State of Rhode Island enacted the Public Drinking Water Protection Act of 1987 that empowers suppliers of public drinking water to levy a surcharge of $.01 per hundred gallons of water for all customers. The surcharge is effective as of January 1, 1989. The funds collected from this surcharge are to be expended in the following manner: 1) at a minimum 90% of the funds are to pay principal or interest on bonds, notes, or other obligations issued or lease payments in connection with any such bonds, notes, or obligations for the purpose of acquiring land or land rights or physical improvements to acquired land to protect the quality of the raw water of the water supply system; and 2) 10% may be used by the supplier for any purpose relating to its operations.

In July 1990, the Public Drinking Water Protection Act was amended by the State of Rhode Island. The amendment increased the levy from $.01 per hundred gallons to $.02333 per hundred gallons of water for all customers. The $.01333 per hundred gallons increase (effective July 1, 1991) is to be remitted to the general treasurer and appropriated to the Water Resources Board, a component of the State of Rhode Island.

The restricted assets are pooled with the cash and cash equivalents and investments of other funds maintained by the City of Providence.

The City's investment policies are governed by the City's charter. Most cash is deposited in FDIC insured banks located within the State. City authorized investments include commercial paper, U.S. government securities, certificates of deposit, corporate stocks and repurchase agreements.

Operating Revenues

Revenues include amounts billed and unbilled to all customers, including those customers outside the City of Providence, Rhode Island. All charges are based on billing rates authorized by the State of Rhode Island Public Utilities Commission.

Contributions in Aid

Contributions in aid consists of property and equipment paid for by customers for water installations. Once the installation is complete, the property and equipment transfers to the Water Supply Board.

Self-insurance

Beginning November 26, 1990, the Water Supply Board began a self-insurance program for its workers' compensation. The plan contains certain stop loss clauses that limit the Water Supply Board's liability in the event of catastrophic losses ($500,000 per incident).

Reclassification of Beginning Retained Earnings

Beginning of the year retained earnings-reserved was decreased $2,000,000 and beginning of the year retained earnings-unreserved was increased by the same amount. The purpose of this reclassification was to accurately reflect the portion of retained earnings reserved for the Water Quality Protection Fund.

B. Providence Civic Center Authority

The Providence Civic Center Authority (the Authority) was created by an Act of the Rhode Island State Legislature in 1969 (the Act) to provide a public facility for various civic, athletic and cultural events. The facility was built and paid for from the proceeds of general obligation bonds sold by the City and contributed to the Authority. The Authority leases its facilities to various promoters and groups, at rental charges usually calculated as a percentage of gross ticket sales and/or a minimum rental fee. Rental charges for certain events are based upon a fixed fee. In addition to rental income, the Authority is reimbursed by lessees for expenses the Authority incurs in connection with the various events.

Under Section 10(b) of the Act, the Authority is required to pay annually all excess revenues, as defined in the Act, to the City. The Civic Center and all funds and assets of the Authority became the property of the City on February 1, 1992, with the payment and retirement of all bonds issued by the City to acquire/construct the Civic Center. It is the City's intention to continue to operate the Authority as a going concern.

Ticket Surcharge Receipts

The proceeds of the 5% surcharge on all ticket sales established by the Rhode Island General Assembly was to be used by the City of Providence to reduce bond indebtedness and terminated with the retirement of the bonds on February 1, 1992.

Effective February 1, 1992, the City of Providence, City Council established a 5% surcharge on all ticket sales. The surcharge is to be used at the discretion of the Providence Civic Center Authority for capital improvements, emergency or other repairs, or as otherwise deemed necessary by the Authority. The surcharge for the period February 1, 1992 through June 30, 1992 was $180,733 and is included in operating revenues.

Lease Purchase Agreement

The City of Providence entered into a lease purchase agreement for the Providence Civic Center, in the amount of $2,400,000 on December 26, 1986, with Fleet National Bank. The agreement is secured with the assets from the expansion project at the Civic Center. The agreement permits annual renewals for the 10 year period ending December 31, 1996, with payments of principal and interest on those renewal dates. Under the agreement, the Civic Center has the right to purchase the assets on each renewal date for amounts specified in the Agreement. The assets become the property of the Civic Center upon completion of its obligation during the initial lease term and all renewal periods. The cost of leased assets and related accumulated amortization was approximately $2,290,000 and $542,000 at June 30, 1992.

The Providence Civic Center entered into a lease agreement in the amount of $13,775 on June 18, 1992 with Master Lease, a Division of Tokai Financial Services, Incorporated. The agreement is secured with a voice mail telephone system. The cost of the asset and related accumulated amortization was $13,775 and $1,378 at June 30, 1992. The term of the lease is for four years and bears interest at 8%. The asset becomes property of the Civic Center upon completion of the lease term.

Subsequent Events

On June 18, 1992, the Providence Civic Center Authority entered into a Concession Agreement with Sportservice Corporation. The agreement provides Sportservice Corporation with exclusive concession privileges for the eighteen year period beginning July 1, 1995 and ending June 30, 2013. In accordance with the agreement, Sportservice Corporation will pay the Providence Civic Center $650,860, as a cost of contract, on or before July 1, 1995. The $650,860 payment will be amortized over the term of the agreement.

On August 6, 1992, the Providence Civic Center Authority borrowed $250,000 from Boston Professional Hockey Association, Inc. The $250,000 is payable in full on July 2, 1995 and bears interest at the rate of 3.5% per year payable annually on or before July 1 of each year with the final payment due on July 2, 1995.

In connection with the above, the Providence Civic Center, Boston Professional Hockey Association, Inc., and Sportservice Corporation entered into an agreement on August 6, 1992. The agreement authorizes, instructs and directs Sportservice Corporation to make all payments directly to Boston Professional Hockey Association, Inc. until Sportservice Corporation has received written notice from Boston Professional Hockey Association, Inc. that all of the Providence Civic Center's obligations have been paid in full.

On July 15, 1992, the Civic Center received a $100,000 advance from TicketPro in anticipation that the Civic Center and TicketPro will enter into three-year contract beginning October 1, 1992. The $100,000 is an advance against future service charge rebates. The advance is refundable should the Civic Center and TicketPro fail to agree on a final contract on or before October 1, 1992.

The City of Providence entered into a lease purchase agreement for the Providence Civic Center in the amount of $375,000 as of October 1, 1992 with Fleet National Bank. The agreement is secured with the assets from the renovation project at the Civic Center. The cost of such assets are approximately $375,000. The agreement is effective October 1, 1992 and will terminate June 30, 1993. The agreement permits five renewal periods ending October 1, 1997 with payments of principal ($75,000) and interest (4.40%--6.40%) on October 1 of each year. Under the Agreement, the Civic Center has the right to purchase the assets, each year after the payment of principal and interest, for amounts specified in the Agreement. The assets become the property of the Civic Center upon completion of its obligation during the initial lease term and all renewal periods. The Agreement requires that a trustee (Fleet National Bank) maintain the unused portion of the funds during renovation to invest these funds as specified in the trustee agreement.

10. Fund Equity

Reserved fund balance at June 30, 1992, is as follows:

10. Fund Equity (continued)

Designated portions of unreserved fund balance (deficit) at June 30, 1992, are as follows:

Special Revenue Fund:

Designated (deficit) for grantor-restricted purposes $(3,826,063)

Providence Public Building Authority:

Designated for specific purposes 3,703,389
$ (122,674)

The General Fund has an undesignated fund deficit of $7,830,595 at June 30, 1992. The undesignated deficit is the result of reserving fund balance for the note due from the Water Supply Board ($3,674,478) and the due from the Water Supply Board ($5,160,444) amounting to $8,834,922. The Water Supply Board will use a surcharge and more timely billing (quarterly in arrears versus yearly in arrears) to pay off the above advances.

The Capital Projects Fund has an undesignated fund deficit of $24,526,549 at June 30, 1992. The City intends to eliminate this deficit through future bond issues.

The Water Supply Board has reserved retained earnings of $4,033,223 at June 30, 1992. This represents unexpended water quality protection revenue (see Note 9).

11. Pension Plan

A. Employees' Retirement System of the City of Providence (ERS)

The City's ERS is a contributory pension plan covering most City employees, except teachers and employees of the Providence Civic Center Authority. The plan is considered part of the City's financial reporting entity and is included in the City's annual financial report as a retirement system. The City's payroll for the year ended June 30, 1992, for employees covered by the plan was $74,763,000; the City's total payroll was $155,675,000.

At June 30, 1991, the City's ERS membership consisted of the following:

Retirees and beneficiaries currently receiving benefits		2,618
Current employees:
Vested	1,598
Nonvested	1,233	2,831
		5,449

City of Providence, Rhode Island

11. Pension Plan (continued)

The plan provides retirement benefits as well as death and disability benefits. Members of the plan are classified as Class A or Class B members.

Class A members are eligible to retire at age 55 with 10 years of service or at any age after 25 years of service. Retirement benefits are equal to an annuity, which is the actuarial equivalent of his/her accumulated contributions at the time of retirement, plus 1/40 of his/her final compensation for each year of total service up to 20 years and 1/50 of his/her final compensation for each year of service in excess of 20 years.

Class B members are eligible to retire at age 55 with 10 years of service or at any age after 20 years of service. Retirement benefits are equal to an annuity, which is the actuarial equivalent of his/her accumulated contributions at the time of retirement, plus 1/40 of his/her final compensation for each year of total service up to 20 years and 1/50 of his/her final compensation for each year of service in excess of 20 years (not to exceed 32 years and 6 months).

At retirement, a member may elect to convert his/her allowance into a benefit of equivalent actuarial value in accordance with one of the options described below:

Option 1. A reduced retirement allowance payable during the retired member's life, with a provision that in case of death before such payments have equaled the present value of his/her retirement allowance at the date of retirement, the balance shall be paid to the heirs or assigns; or

Option 2. A reduced retirement allowance payable during the retired member's life, with a provision that after his/her death it shall be continued during the life of and paid to the person nominated by him/her by written designation at the time of his/her retirement; or

Option 3. A reduced retirement allowance payable during the retired member's life, with a provision that after his/her death an allowance at one-half the rate of his/her reduced allowance shall be continued during the life of and paid to the person nominated by him/her by written designation at the time of his/her retirement; or

Option 4. A reduced retirement allowance payable during the retired member's life, with some other benefit payable after his/her death, provided that the benefit shall be certified by the actuary and approved by the retirement board.

These benefit provisions and all other requirements are established by City ordinance.

B. Teachers' Pension Plan

All full-time teachers including superintendents, principals, school nurses and certain other school officials ("classified employees") in the Providence School Department participate in the Employees Retirement System of the State of Rhode Island ("System"), a cost-sharing multiple-employer public retirement system. The payroll for employees covered by the System for the year ended June 30, 1992, was approximately $61,758,865; the Department's total payroll was approximately $78,056,729.

All full-time classified employees of the Providence School Department are eligible to participate in the System. Classified employees who retire at or after age 60 with 10 years of credited service or at any age with 28 years of credited service are entitled to a retirement benefit payable monthly for life.

The retirement benefit is a percentage of final average salary per year of credited service with a maximum benefit of 80% of final average salary. Percentage relating to each year of credited service is as follows:

Years of credit service	Percent/Year
1-10	1.7%
11-20	1.9%
21-34	3.0%
35	2.0%

Final average salary is the three highest consecutive years of earned salary excluding overtime, bonuses, or severance pay. The System also provides death and disability benefits. Benefits are established by State statute.

Covered employees are required by State statute to contribute 8.5% of their salary to the plan. The School Department contributions are based on a percentage of annual compensation of active members, half of which is payable by the State of Rhode Island for the year ended June 30, 1992. The School Department contributions required for the year ended June 30, 1992, were approximately $6,914,000. Actual contributions consisted of approximately $6,914,000 from the School Department and approximately $5,240,000 from employees; the employer and employee contributions represent covered payroll of 11.2% and 8.5%, respectively. The School Department contribution represented 5.7% of total contributions required of all participating entities.

Included in the carrying amount and market value at June 30, 1992, are $4,718 of investments that are included in fixed assets of the Enterprise Fund and $1,279,398 of investments that are restricted investments of the Capital Projects Fund. These amounts are reserved for future capital expansion and other purposes.

15. Deferred Compensation Plan

The City offers a deferred compensation plan, created in accordance with Internal Revenue Code Section 457, to all municipal employees. The Plan permits them to defer a portion of their salary until future years. The City contracts with private corporations to administer the Plan. The deferred compensation is not available to employees until termination, retirement, death or unforeseeable emergency.

All deferred compensation under the plan, all property and rights purchased with the amounts, and all income earned on those amounts, property or rights are (until paid or made available to the employee or other beneficiary) solely the property and rights of the

15. Deferred Compensation Plan (continued)

City (without being restricted to the provisions for benefits under the plan), subject only to claims of the City's general creditors. Participant rights under the plan are equal to those of City creditors, in an amount equal to the fair market value for each participant's deferred account.

The City has not used the assets of the Plan to satisfy the claims of general creditors and it is unlikely the assets will be used to satisfy general creditor claims in the future.

16. Providence Public Building Authority

The Providence Public Building Authority (PBA) was created by an act of the Rhode Island General Assembly and was empowered by resolution of the Providence City Council on August 13, 1987, and by resolution of the Public Finance Board, created under Section 42-10.11 of the General Laws of Rhode Island, on February 12, 1988. For financial reporting purposes, the PBA is a component unit of the City and as such, the financial statements of the PBA are included in the City's general purpose financial statements.

The purpose of the PBA is to acquire, construct, maintain, renovate, repair and operate public facilities and public equipment through the use of public financing, for lease to the City. These activities allow the PBA to provide for the conduct of the executive, legislative and judicial functions of the government. The PBA is obligated to pay the principal and interest on any financing solely from the rents, revenues and receipts derived under the lease agreements with the City or from receipts on the disposition of the assets being financed. The PBA's administrative expenses are paid on an annual basis by the lessee in the form of additional rent.

General Revenue Bonds Series A and Series B

In December 1990, the PBA sold $22,295,000 1990 Series A General Revenue Bonds and $14,105,000 1990 Series B General Revenue Bonds. These bonds, which have interest rates ranging from 5.80% to 7.25% and mature through 2010, are secured by a pledge of lease rentals to be received from the City pursuant to a lease agreement relating to projects financed by the PBA and leased to the City.

The proceeds from Bond Issue Series A were used to refund certain bond anticipation notes issued to finance the Scituate Reservoir Project, to capitalize interest, to pay costs of issuance and to finance the debt service reserve fund. The 1990 Series B Bonds were issued to provide funds which were used to effect the advance refunding of the 1988

Series A School Administration Building and School Buildings Project General Revenue Bonds. A payment of $13,289,000, which represents the present value of the adjusted cash receipts from the 1988 Series A Bonds, was placed in an escrow account for future debt service requirements.

The annual principal and interest payments, as of June 30, 1992, required to amortize the 1990 Series A General Revenue Bonds are as follows:

Revenue Bond Anticipation Notes, 1991 Series 2

The $4,150,000 Revenue Bond Anticipation Notes, 1991 Series 2, dated July 31, 1991, due July 30, 1992, are being refunded by the $4,235,000 Roger Williams Park Zoo "Plains of Africa Exhibit" Project Revenue Bonds, 1992 Series A. These bonds, which have an interest rate of 5.00% and mature through 1997 are secured by a pledge of lease rentals to be received from the City pursuant to a lease agreement relating to projects financed by the Authority and leased to the City.

Revenue Bond Anticipation Notes, 1992 Series I

The $6,280,000 Scituate Reservoir II Project Revenue Bond Anticipation Notes, 1992 Series I, dated March 18, 1992, and due March 18, 1993, have an interest rate that ranges from 4.23% to 5.20%.

Leases

The PBA leases certain properties to the City of Providence under the following terms:

a) School Administration Building and School Building Project Lease

The premises to which this lease pertains were acquired and/or renovated by the PBA with the proceeds from the $13,000,000 1988 Series A General Revenue Bonds and $3,790,150 from the 1990 Series A General Revenue Bonds. The lease term commenced on December 15, 1988, and terminates on September 15, 2010.

b) Carousel Project Lease

This project refers to the installation and construction of a carousel at the Roger Williams Park. The project thus far has been financed with $1,783,600 from the 1990 Series A in General Revenue Bonds. The Lease pertaining to this project commenced on September 6, 1989, and terminates on September 15, 2010.

c) Scituate Reservoir Project

This project refers to the acquisition and maintenance of parcels of land surrounding the Scituate Reservoir. It has been financed thus far with $8,695,050 from the 1990 Series A General Revenue Bonds and a $2,000,000 payment by the Providence Water Supply Board. The lease of this property to the City commenced on June 14, 1990, and terminates September 15, 2010.

d) Municipal Facilities Project

This project consists of renovations and improvements to City Hall, renovations to fire stations, repairs to City swimming pools and recreation centers and repairs and improvements to other municipal buildings and facilities. The project thus far has been financed with $8,026,200 from the 1990 Series A General Revenue Bonds. The lease pertaining to this project commenced on September 13, 1990, and terminates on September 15, 2010.

e) Veazie Street School Project

This project includes construction, renovation, rehabilitation, improvements and necessary furnishing and equipping of Veazie Street School for use as an elementary school. The lease commenced on December 1, 1991, and terminates on December 1, 2012.

At the expiration of the leases, the City, at its option, can purchase the properties for a nominal amount.

The lease agreements relating to property financed by the PBA require, among other things, that the City make annual rental payments that are sufficient to meet the related bond principal and interest requirements, note interest, as well as pay all costs of operating the leased properties. However, the rents to be paid to the PBA shall be reduced to the extent that such interest and principal payments for any such period are provided for from the proceeds of bonds or notes or from the investment earnings of such proceeds received by the PBA.

16. Providence Public Building Authority (continued)

Also, the obligation of the City to pay rents under the lease agreements is subject to and dependent upon appropriations being made by the City for such purposes. Such appropriations are dependent upon the City's budgetary process and are therefore dependent on the City's general financial resources and factors affecting those resources.

The estimated future minimum lease payments required for bond principal retirement and interest to be received from the City has been presented above under the caption "General Revenue Bonds Series A and Series B" and "General Revenue Bonds, Series 1991." However, to the extent that the principal and interest payments were provided for from the proceeds of the bonds, the City is not required to make lease payments to the PBA.

Rental income from the City amounted to $3,322,798 for the year ended June 30, 1992.

Accrued Judgment

The PBA received an adverse decision dated May 23, 1991, by the Superior Court of the State of Rhode Island in an action brought by certain landowners against the PBA for damages sustained as a consequence of the PBA's condemnation of certain land surrounding the reservoir located in Scituate, Rhode Island. The judgment amounted to $9,797,200 plus interest, of which $2,637,500 of principal had been paid into an escrow account on January 4, 1991, and another $2,637,500 of principal was deposited on May 23, 1991. The accrued judgment includes the unpaid principal amount of $4,522,200 plus interest of $2,169,050 at 12% per annum on the unpaid principal balance through June 30, 1991. The related expenses appeared in the PBA's Capital Projects Fund and are included in capital expenditures and interest expense for the year ended June 30, 1991. The total capital expenditure was $9,797,200 and the total interest expense was $2,169,049, through June 30, 1991. The PBA filed an appeal of the decision with the Rhode Island Supreme Court. On July 14, 1992, the Supreme Court of the State of Rhode Island sustained the PBA's appeal, reversed and vacated the judgment previously entered and ordered a new hearing to determine the value of the land. The complete reversal of the judgment would result in a gain contingency to the PBA. Consistent with generally accepted accounting principles, this amount has not been reflected in the PBA's financial statements at June 30, 1992. The case is presently awaiting retrial in the Superior Court, and the PBA intends to aggressively defend the claim.
