

RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL

No. 458

Approved November 24, 2025

WHEREAS, Jennie DiLullo was a daughter of Providence and a resident of the Fifth Ward of Providence; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. DiLullo was a co-owner of the General Tool and Supply Company of Attleboro, Massachusetts alongside her husband, Bernard, and was known for a diligence that contributed greatly to their success; and

WHEREAS, Proud of her Lebanese heritage and a committed fundraiser in her home parish of Saint George Maronite Catholic Church, located in Cranston, Mrs. DiLullo was jointly awarded the silver Massabki Award, an honor conferred by the National Apostolate of Maronites to Maronites for extraordinary contributions of their time, talent, and resources, with her husband in 1997; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. DiLullo was notably a Democratic committeewoman for the Fifth Ward and an active supporter of varying political campaigns throughout her life; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. DiLullo was also a deeply devoted and proud mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother who encouraged her husband and children to seek success; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. DiLullo, having died on November 1, 2025 at the age of 90, is remembered for her steadfast dedication to the causes, communities, and people so integral to her life.

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, That the Providence City Council recognizes the life and deep community ties of Jennie DiLullo; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That Councilwoman Jo-Ann Ryan of the Fifth Ward and the entire Providence City Council offer their most sincere condolences to her husband, Bernard; her children, Bernard, Jr. (Donna), Louis, and Janis (Nicholas); her grandchildren, Elizabeth (Daniel), Alexa, Christian (Gabrielle); and her great-grandchildren, Coraline and Nicholas; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That upon passage, copies of this resolution be transmitted to the family of Jennie DiLullo.

IN CITY COUNCIL
NOV 20 2025
READ AND PASSED

RACHEL M. MILLER, PRESIDENT

CLERK

I HEREBY APPROVE.

Mayor

Date: 11/24/25