SUMMARY

My experience is combining the highest professional and personal standards with the ability to work individually, as a team builder, a manager, collaborator, leader and follower. For over thirty five years, I have built successful businesses and a network of contacts state-wide, surrounded myself with learning opportunities, stimulating and informed individuals and challenging situations. I am committed to contributing to my community with the ultimate goal of being part of creating an economically sound, vital, stimulating and just community that will benefit all of Rhode Island's citizens.
