Ladies and Gentlemen:

Mrs. Jennie Liberatore, who has been my deputy clerk for the last ten years, has submitted her resignation as deputy clerk of the probate court and is retiring from city service.

Her last day of work was January 2, 1987. She will be on vacation until February 8, 1987. In order that the routine of this office may continue without interruption until her vacation expires on February 8, 1987, and that someone will be able to sign the necessary letters, warrants and other documents in my absence, I hereby appoint Mary Quinn as acting deputy clerk to serve in such capacity until Mrs Liberatore's retirement is effective.

I hereby request your approval of this appointment.

Respectfully submitted
