ROLL CALL

INVOCATION

The Invocation is given by REVEREND DL HELFER, UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST CONGREGATION OF SOUTH COUNTY.

"Holy One, known by many names and beyond all names. Spirit of Life, Spirit of Love, Spirit of Community, Spirit of Justice. We ask Your blessings on the people who have been called to lead the community in which we live and work and play. Help them as leaders to not ask first how do we fix this, but do we need to learn. How might we need to change and to who do we need to listen. Remind them, because we all forget from time to time especially in the noisiness of what passes for political debate today, that they are not only leaders but also servants and that it is their responsibility and ours to serve the common good of all. Remind them that no matter where we live, everyone, gay, straight, transgender, black or white, Hispanic or Asian, Muslim, Jew, Hindu, Sikh or Atheist is our neighbor, our sibling and that throughout the ages prophets have called the leaders of the people to respect and protect the least of those among us. Our children, the elderly, the poor, those who are hungry, those who have no homes, those who are ill in body, mind and spirit. The strangers and immigrants in our midst, those who live on the margins, those who are alone, those who are forgotten. Grant them and us the wisdom and courage to know what is right and good and true. May they and we speak out when it is time to speak out and listen, patiently and receptively, when it is time to listen. May they and we always be guided by the spirit of community, by the spirit of justice, and by the spirit of love. This we pray in the name of all that we hold sacred and holy. All that we hold good and right and true. May it be so."

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

COUNCILWOMAN JO-ANN RYAN Leads the Members of the City Council and the Assemblage in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

PERSONAL EXPRESSION

COUNCILMAN JOHN J. IGLIOZZI Requests the privilege of the floor to speak on a Point of Personal Expression and states:

"For many reasons, today is a very special day. It's a special day because it's sunny out, it's nice out, we're in a great city called the City of Providence. We're coming upon a great festival this weekend and the weekend after and all of us are here alive and well and raising our families or loving our loved ones and enjoying our lives. All of us have some folks to be thankful for that and the people that we have to be thankful for happened seventy five years ago on the beaches of Normandy when 175,000 men stormed the beaches in Operation Overlord to protect the freedoms that all of us enjoy today. They rushed the beaches with 5,000 allied ships, 12,000 aircrafts from all the allied continents. Our French comrades, British, Australia, and all our other allies. They decided to take on a challenge to save the world. The challenge was to beat back, at least at this moment in time in our most modern times, the most evil empire that this country has faced. It's not read in a book, it's not in a movie, but it actually existed. Nazi Germany, Imperial Japan and their allies were destroying this world. As those men rushed those beaches in the first wave, which they said if I remember approximately 95% died in that first wave. Then the second wave, and the third wave and the fourth wave and it kept coming until finally we breached the shores and we were able to breach a location of a Nazi sniper next to finally break that area. Eventually, within eleven months by the way we finally received a capitulation of Nazi Germany. Why do I say that? Because in Providence Rhode Island ninety nine men from the State of Rhode Island rushed that beach and many of them did not make it. I know of two of them by the way. Two of them were my second cousins. They were both in the Higgins Boat as they call it. It was my cousin Pat and my cousin Joe. They both sat on the boat together and at the time their neighbor from Union Avenue was their commander. So, the Higgins Boat rushed into the shores and Pat said to Joe I will see you back at home. As the dawn fell so did Pat. Pat didn't make it home, but Joe did. They gave their lives for all of us. So, it's important that we take a moment for the men and women today that protect our freedoms. From the men and women who fought in Korea, in Vietnam and any other foreign campaign. They still fought for democracy and for all of us today to stand here tonight, to be together, to legislate on behalf of the people we represent. I would ask everyone to take a moment of silence. Today, I was at a ceremony, they rang the bell ninety nine times and they mentioned each name of the members of the Rhode Island soldiers who stormed the beach. I am not only asking you to do that, but I am asking you to take a moment today to think about them, our families, our friends and our loved ones. If we could all rise for a moment. Thank you and God Bless America."

Resolution Endorsing and Urging Passage by the General Assembly of House Bill 2019 H-5741 and Senate Bill 2019 S-635, An Act Relating to Criminal Offenses - Weapons.

WHEREAS, Laws banning assault weapons are consistent with the Supreme Court’s interpretation of the Second Amendment; and

WHEREAS, In the 2008 ruling in District of Columbia v. Heller, the United States Supreme Court stated for the first time that the Second Amendment protects a law-abiding citizens right to possess an operable handgun in the home for self-defense; and

WHEREAS, The Court noted, however, that the right is limited and, among limitations, the Court recognized that the Second Amendment would not preclude banning “dangerous and unusual weapons”; and

WHEREAS, Seven States and the District of Columbia have enacted laws banning Assault weapons including: California, Connecticut, Hawaii, Maryland, Massachusetts, New Jersey, and New York; and

WHEREAS, Large Capacity Ammunition Magazines (generally defined as magazines capable of holding more than ten rounds) are feeding devices that may hold as many as 100 rounds of ammunition; and

WHEREAS, Assault Weapons and/or large capacity ammunition magazines have been the tools of choice in most mass shootings of innocent civilians, including:

- Christchurch, New Zealand, March 15, 2019: a shooter killed 50 and wounded 34 with a military-style semi-automatic assault weapon,
- Parkland, Florida, February 14, 2018: a shooter killed 17 and wounded 14 at Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School with an AR-15-style assault rifle
- Orlando, Florida, June 12, 2016: a shooter killed 49 and wounded 58 at the Pulse Nightclub with an AR-15-style assault rifle
- Newtown, Connecticut, December 14, 2012: a shooter killed 26 and wounded 2 at Sandy Hook Elementary School with an AR-1- style assault rifle; and

WHEREAS, Assault weapon shootings are responsible for a significant percentage of deaths of law enforcement officers killed in the line of duty, evidence from law enforcement leaders suggest that military-style assault weapons are being used against law enforcement by violent individuals; and

WHEREAS, Assault weapons are inappropriate for civilian use due to their unique combinations of features and their ability to allow a shooter to fire a large number of rounds rapidly while maintaining control of the firearm; and

WHEREAS, Following the Sandy Hook shooting, the Connecticut legislature acted swiftly, passing an assault weapon ban in response to the tragic shooting; and

WHEREAS, Just days after last week's tragic shootings in New Zealand mosques, New Zealand's cabinet announced that in the next 10 days they will roll out gun violence prevention reforms that will likely include an assault weapon regulation; and

WHEREAS, Current state law allows Concealed Carry Permit ("CCP") holders to carry firearms onto Rhode Island K-12 school grounds; and

WHEREAS, Forty two (42) other states do not generally allow concealed carry in K-12 schools; and

WHEREAS, Data collected by the Violence Policy Center, a Washington D.C. gun safety organization, from May 2007 to March 2017 documents 729 gun violence incidents in 40 states and the District of Columbia resulting in 928 deaths. In 83 percent of the incidents (604) the concealed carry killer committed suicide (296), has already been convicted (235), perpetrated a murder-suicide (56), or was killed in the incident (17).

WHEREAS, Of the 95 cases still pending, the vast majority (81) were charged with criminal homicide, four were deemed incompetent to stand trial, and 10 incidents are still under investigation. An additional 30 incidents were fatal unintentional shootings involving the gun of the concealed handgun permit holder; and

WHEREAS, The National Education Association of Rhode Island, The Rhode Island Association of School Principals, The Rhode Island Association of School Committees, and The Rhode Island Federation of Teachers & Health Professionals have voted to support banning concealed weapons on school grounds, except for duly authorized peace officers/law enforcement; and

WHEREAS, On February 14, 2019, Governor Gina Raimondo and Attorney General Peter Neronha unveiled gun safety legislation that would ban assault weapons, ban high-capacity magazines and prohibit concealed-carry weapons on school grounds; and

WHEREAS, As public servants and the elected representatives of the people of Providence, the City Council has a moral obligation to keep assault weapons off the street and from the hands of criminals in order to assure the safety of the people of Providence, students and law enforcement officials; and

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Providence City Council respectfully requests the Rhode Island General Assembly to pass, House Bill 2019 H-5741 and Senate Bill 2019 S-635, An Act Relating to Criminal Offenses - Weapons.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That, upon passage, copies of this resolution be sent to the elected Rhode Island House and Senate representatives of the City of Providence, the Speaker of the House, and the Senate President.

Resolution Endorsing and Urging Passage by the General Assembly of House Bill 2019
H-5762 and Senate Bill 2019 S-636, An Act Relating to Criminal Offenses - Weapons.

Resolution Endorsing and Urging Passage by the General Assembly of House Bill 2019
H-6064, An Act Relating to Waters and Navigation - PFAS in Drinking and Surface Waters.

WHEREAS, Perfluorinated Alkyl Substances (PFAS) are associated with a wide variety of health risks from a variety of cancers, to autoimmune diseases, to risks associated with prenatal and early childhood development; and

WHEREAS, PFAS are pervasive, wherein a 2007 study found that 98% of the population of the U.S. had detectable amounts of PFAS in their blood stream; and

WHEREAS, PFAS are long-lasting and a longer life in the environment means both more opportunities for exposure and often means that once a person is exposed to PFAS they stay exposed for decades or more; and

WHEREAS, H-6064 will Authorize the Department of Health, in consultation with the Water Resources Board, to adopt by rule maximum contaminant level or levels for PFAS to protect the quality and safety of the public drinking water supply in compliance with the provisions of chapter 15.3 of title 46; and

WHEREAS, The Act sets an interim drinking water standard and requires monitoring to protect public health in the short term, requires DOH to set a Maximum Contaminant Level for five enumerated PFAS compounds, engage in rulemaking regarding the regulation of PFAS as a class, and ultimately either regulate PFAS as a class or explain any impediments to doing so, to investigate potential sources of PFAS contamination; and

WHEREAS, The Act also requires DEM to set surface water quality standards for at least five enumerated PFAS compounds and to investigate the risks posed by emerging contaminants in landfill leachate; and

WHEREAS, The City of Providence strongly supports passage of H-6064 for the protection of Rhode Island's precious surface and drinking water sources.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the City Council endorses and urges passage by the Rhode Island House of Representatives of House Bill 6064, an act relating to waters and navigation -- PFAS in drinking and surface waters.

Resolution Recognizing the Month of June as Pride Month.

WHEREAS, June is Pride month, an affirming celebration of Providence's lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer, and intersex (LGBTQI) community members and their contributions to our Capital City; and

WHEREAS, 2019 is the fiftieth anniversary of the Stonewall rebellion, during which LGBTQI community members said, "Enough," after a violent police raid at the Stonewall Inn in Greenwich Village. The protest movement at Stonewall ushered in the modern movement for LGBTQI liberation; and

WHEREAS, Trans community members, particularly trans women of color, continue to be at the forefront of social movements for LGBTQI, racial, and economic justice, as they were at Stonewall, and continue to face enormous personal, political, and social risk, in the act of expressing their full humanity; and

WHEREAS, Providence's LGBTQI community marched in the first Providence Pride Parade in 1976, in the midst of hostile opposition, threats of violence, and resistance from city government and police who publicly condemned the event as promoting criminal behavior; and

WHEREAS, 43 years later Pride celebrations and LGBTQI individuals and their families are still being vilified as a threat by people in powerful positions locally and nationally; and

WHEREAS, Providence's LGBTQI community spans the full diversity of our city and includes young people, community elders, parents, immigrants from around the world, Black, white, Latino/a, Native, Asian, Southeast Asian, and Pacific Islander, people of all religions and creeds, and people from every walk of life; and

WHEREAS, Pride is an opportunity to lift up the work for LGBTQI inclusion in Providence while acknowledging that our community is intersectional, that the struggles that LGBTQI individuals face are multifaceted, and that it is the work of everyone in our community gay, straight, cis, trans, and queer, to elevate the work for justice, inclusion, affirmation, and celebration, and liberation for all.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That Providence City Council welcomes June as Pride month.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That Providence City Council celebrates and recognizes the contributions, struggles, risks, and many identities of Providence's LGBTQI community and their families and proudly affirms that love is love.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that Providence City Council wishes the LGBTQI community and straight allies a very happy pride month, and encourages all residents of Providence to enjoy a safe, celebratory Pride.
