Councilman John Lombardi

Providence, Rhode Island 02909

Dear John:

Pursuant to our conversation on February 10, 1999. I am sending you a copy of the letter requesting an extension for residency for my Daughter, Gina Floriani. The School Department will not act on this request and has informed her she will be terminated by the end of the school year. This will happen unless she gets Council approval of her request for the extension, and the School Department is notified in writing.

Any help you can give me will be appreciated.

Thank You

William G. Floriani

RE: TIME EXTENTION RESIDENCY

Dear Mayor Cianci:

I am writing in response to a letter I received relating to my employment in the Providence School System as a 4th grade teacher. I am presently teaching at Carl G. Lauro Elementary School. I was hired on August 24, 1998 and have to move into the City by February 24, 1999.

I plan to move into the City and become a Providence resident. I presently live with my parents and will be married on October 16, 1999. In looking for a house in Providence I found a parcel of land at 202-206 Wardlaw Avenue in the Elmhurst Section of Providence. I plan to construct a new home at that site and I have entered into a contract with the owner and builder to start construction in March or April of 1999 weather permitting.

I am asking for an extension on my residency requirement until September 30, 1999, to move into the City of Providence. I hope you will look favorably upon this request and forward this letter to the proper agencies for approval. I can be reached either at Carl G. Lauro Elementary School during the day or at 401 353-7205 in the evenings.

Sincerely yours,

Gina M. Floriani
