RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL

No. 222

Approved March 20, 1967

WHEREAS, the City of Providence, Rhode Island, will be the host City for the forthcoming Italian Festival which will be held during the latter portion of the coming month of April and during the month of May, and

WHEREAS, amongst many events scheduled will be series of bocchia games that will add additional International flavor to the Festival program, and

WHEREAS, in the true spirit of competition challenges have been issued with reckless abandon, such as that in which a team of certain Members of the City Council of the City of Cranston contest a team, of equal merit, composed of certain Members of the City Council of the City of Providence,

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the City Council of the City of Providence does hereby accept the boastful challenge, undoubtedly issued in a moment of passion, by Councilmen Palazzo and Pierce for and on behalf of a team of certain members of the City Council of the City of Cranston, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that as, if and when such a challenge is accepted by a distinguished and brave team of Cranston Councilmen, it prevail upon the Mayor to the City of Cranston to become a participant, as its Captain, so that the distinguished Mayor of Providence, Joseph A. Doorley, Jr., who will head the Providence Council aggregation, thus will have an opponent of top level class in the proposed event.
