November 20, 1990

Joseph R. Paolino, Jr., Mayor,
City of Providence,
Executive Department,
City Hall,
Providence, R.I. 02903.

Dear Mayor Paolino:

You have requested that this department provide you with a clarification as to the term of Joseph Mollicone to the Convention Center Authority.

Specifically you request that this office "clarify the continuance of service with regard to certain absences from regularly scheduled Convention Center Authority Meetings."

In order to answer this question, it is necessary to consult both the Providence Home Rule Charter and pertinent statutes of the Rhode Island General Laws. Section 1202 (a) of the Providence Home Rule Charter provides that if during a term of office a member is "... absent from five (5) consecutive regular meetings ... without the consent of the appointing authority ..., the office shall thereupon be declared vacant by the appointing authority and the vacancy shall be filled for the remainder of the term in the same manner as the original appointment."

R.I.G.L. 42-99-4 (d) (1), (Convention Center Authority Act), states in part that the "Chief Municipal Officer", where the facility is located "will each appoint four (4) Commissioners ..." for terms which are spelled out. Further, subsection (e) of the R.I.G.L. 42-99-4 provides that "...any commissioner may be removed by the appointing authority for misfeasance, malfeasance or willful neglect of duty." The section concludes by saying that "(A)ny vacancy resulting from ... other failure of a commissioner to continue to serve may be filled by the person given the power to make the original appointment."

It is the opinion of this office that when read together, both the charter provision and the state act permit you to do the following, assuming that Mr. Mollicone has or did miss five (5) consecutive regular meetings without your consent:

Joseph R. Paolino, Jr., Mayor

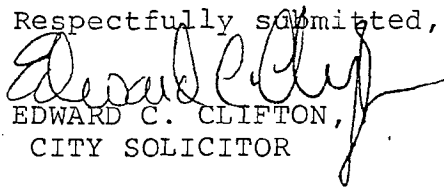

November 20, 1990

- (a) declare his appointment to be vacant due to his absences; (Sec. 1202 of the Charter);
- (b) fill the vacancy by appointing a new commissioner for the balance of the term. (Sec. 1202 of the Charter, and R.I.G.L. 42-99-4 (e)).
