Rose Mendonca
City Clerk
City Hall
Providence, RI 02903

Dear Ms. Mendonca:

As we discussed on the telephone earlier today, below please find the information you requested for a resolution abating taxes and boardup liens sponsored by Council President Nicholas W. Easton.

Address: 481 Potters Avenue 02907
Plat/Lot: 49/124

Property taxes (1981-1985 inclusive):	$1,066.71
Boardup liens:	106.00
Total	$1,172.71

Timely passage of these resolutions will be of great assistance to SWAP in the rehabilitation of this presently abandoned, vandalized and fire-stricken property into a safe, decent tax-paying home. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to call. Thank you.

Sincerely,

David A. Karoff
Executive Director

Rose:

Nick Easton asked me to help a Mr. David Korop, Director of SWAP (272-0526).

After speaking with him, I thought it would be best to have him speak with you.

He is asking for a tax abatement at 481 Potters Avenue. SWAP is buying this property itself. They have been bank approved, and are closing on the 22nd. of May, at Citizens bank.

His concern is that this process be done ASAP.

Thank you Rose,

Rita Murphy
