rights of all segments of the city population by preventing unlawful discriminatory practices. The Commission conducts studies, surveys, and investigations, and also receives, initiates, investigates, hears and determines charges of violation of federal and state law, the City Charter and ordinances of the City Council forbidding discrimination.

Commission members are appointed to three-year terms and receive no compensation. Both Mr. Lucarelli and Mr. Foley will serve through January 1994.

Former Providence Housing Authority Commissioner, Margaret DeFelice, of 10 Chaucer Street in Providence, has been appointed to serve as a member of the Board of Tax Assessment Review.

Ms. DeFelice, who worked for Leeson Corporation for 40 years, served there as a Union Steward for 20 years of her career. The 50-year resident of the Mount Pleasant neighborhood is president of the Mount Pleasant-Manton Resident Association.

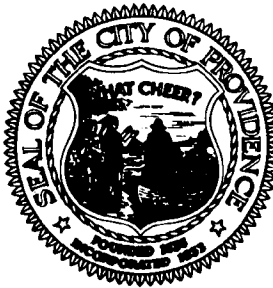

Reappointed to the Board of Tax Assessment Review was retired businessman and former restaurateur Joseph Pannone of 86 Lucille Street in Providence. Mr. Pannone has been a member of the Board since January, 1983.

Ms. DeFelice and Mr. Pannone represent two of the five members who sit on the Board. The Board reviews and
