ORDINANCE(S) SECOND READING

The Following Ordinances were in City Council March 19, 2015, Read and Passed the First Time and are Severally Returned for Passage the Second Time:

COUNCILMAN CORREIA

An Ordinance in Amendment of Article I, Chapter 23, "Streets, Sidewalks and Public Places, Section 23-26, "Special Event Permits."

SECTION 1. The Code of Ordinances of the City of Providence, Article I, of Chapter 23 is hereby amended as follows:

Sec. 23-36. - Special Event Permits.

(a) Events including, but not limited to, parades, performances, athletic competitions, community or charitable events, block parties, or fairs, which take place, in whole or in part, on public property require a special event permit. A special event permit may be issued according to the following requirements:

- (1) Applications for events with five hundred (500) or fewer participants must be filed at least sixty (60) calendar days before the date of the event, and require a special event permit fee of fifty dollars ($50). Applications received fewer than sixty (60) calendar days before the date of the event shall accrue an additional fee of ten dollars ($10) per day (for example, applications received fifty-nine (59) days before the date of the event shall accrue an additional $10 fee.) Applications for events with one hundred (100) or fewer participants may apply for an expedited application as established by regulation for a fee of twenty-five dollars ($25.00).
- (2) Applications for events with more than five hundred (500) participants must be filed at least ninety (90) calendar days before the date of the event, and require a special event permit fee of seventy-five dollars ($75). Applications received fewer than ninety (90) calendar days before the date of the event shall accrue an additional fee of ten dollars ($10) per day (for example, applications received eighty-nine (89) days prior to the date of the event shall accrue an additional $10 fee.).
- (3) Proof of liability insurance shall be required prior to the issuance of a special event permit.
 - a. Events with fewer than five thousand (5,000) participants shall require one million dollars ($1,000,000) in liability insurance; and
 - b. Events with more than five thousand (5,000) participants shall require five million dollars ($5,000,000) in liability insurance.
 - c. The liability insurance policy shall name the City of Providence as an additional insured.
- (4) Additional fees shall be assessed for street closures, traffic control, police or fire detail, or other services from City departments that are necessary to carry out the special event.
- (5) The department of arts, culture, and tourism, or any other department as may be designated by the mayor, shall develop special event guidelines in accordance with this section. The department shall accept and review applications for special event permits, and will inform the applicant of additional requirements including services, permits, and licenses. The department will refer the applicant to the appropriate departments to comply with such requirements.
- (6) Events to be held in City parks. In addition to the requirements provided in this section, an event to be held in a City park or parks shall require a park permit. The superintendent of parks shall review and act upon park permit applications. Park permit applications must be approved by the superintendent prior to the issuance of a special use permit by the department of arts, culture, and tourism.
 - (b) A special event permit shall be denied under the following circumstances:

- (1) The location of the event is already reserved for use on the date and approximate time requested in the application. In such case, the City will attempt to provide the applicant with an alternate site, route, time, or date for the special event.
- (2) The activity is to be held for the primary purpose of advertising products or goods, and/or is designed to be held for commercial profit.
- (3) The superintendent of parks or the director of arts, culture and tourism determines that the proposed attendance, duration, and/or usage of sound amplification equipment would constitute a disturbance of the surrounding neighborhood, and would violate the noise control regulations of the City ordinance or of state law. If the applicant's request is denied, the superintendent and/or director will make reasonable efforts to offer an alternative location acceptable to the applicant.
- (4) The applicant and/or its principal or affiliate is more than 60 (sixty) days delinquent in payments to the City for police and fire details, or other city services, as provided for in Section 16-27.

SECTION 2. This ordinance shall take effect upon passage.

COUNCILMAN CORREIA

An Ordinance Amending Chapter 15, Article VII of the Code of Ordinances of the City of Providence "Snowmobiles and Recreation Vehicles."

SECTION 1. The Code of Ordinances of the City of Providence, Chapter 15, "Motor Vehicles and Traffic," Article VII, "Snowmobile Regulations," is hereby amended as follows:

Article VII. Snowmobiles and Recreational Vehicles.

Sec. 15-101. Definitions.

(a) Snowmobile. A self-propelled vehicle designed for travel on snow or ice in a natural terrain steered by wheels, skis or runners.

(b) Operate. To control the operation of a snowmobile.

(c) Operator. A person who operates or is in actual control of a snowmobile or recreational vehicle.

(d) Recreational vehicle. A motor vehicle, including minibikes, designed to travel over unimproved terrain and which has been determined by the division of motor vehicles as unsuitable for operation on the public way and not eligible for registration for such use. This shall not be construed to include golf mobiles or golf carts, riding lawn mowers, or garden tractors, which are not registered as farm vehicles, but shall include and three (3) wheel driven vehicle and any other four (4) wheel driven vehicle, regardless of type or design, including all classes of all-terrain vehicles.

Sec. 15-102. Regulations.

It shall be unlawful for any person to operate a snowmobile or recreational vehicle under the following circumstances:

- (a) On private property of another without the express permission to do so by the owner or occupant of said property.
- (b) On public school grounds, park property, playgrounds, recreational areas and golf courses.
- (c) Without having such snowmobile or recreational vehicle registered as provided for by statute except that this provision shall not apply to the operation of a snowmobile or recreational vehicle on the private property of the owner by the owner or a member of his immediate family.
- (d) Within the right-of-way of any public street within the city.

Sec. 15-104. Equipment required.

All snowmobiles and recreational vehicles operated within the city shall have the following equipment.

- (a) Mufflers which are properly attached and which reduce the noise of operation of the vehicle to the minimum noise necessary for operating the vehicle and no person shall use a muffler cut-out, by-pass or similar device on said vehicle.
- (b) Adequate brakes in good working condition and at least one (1) headlight and one (1) taillight.
- (c) A safety or so-called "dead man" throttle is defined as a device which when pressure is removed from the accelerator or throttle causes the motor to be disengaged from driving track.

Sec. 15-105. Penalty.

The penalty for a violation of this article, shall be forfeiture of the snowmobile or recreational vehicle; or if the defendant does not own the vehicle and the owner did not know and could not reasonably have known that the vehicle would be used in violation of this article, a civil penalty of five hundred dollars ($500) shall be imposed. The Providence Police Department shall be empowered to seize and impound snowmobiles and recreational vehicles in order to enforce this article.

SECTION 2. This ordinance shall take effect upon passage.

Resolution Establishing Sister City Relationships with Santo Domingo and Santiago de los Caballeros.

WHEREAS, The Members of the City Council of Providence, Rhode Island desire to re-establish a Sister City relationship with Santo Domingo Distrito Nacional and to establish a Sister City relationship with Municipio de Santiago de los Caballeros; and

WHEREAS, Founded in 1498 by Bartholomew Columbus (younger brother of Christopher), Santo Domingo is the oldest continually inhabited European settlement in the Americas; and

WHEREAS, The city was the first seat of the Spanish colonial authorities in the New World; and

WHEREAS, Santo Domingo is the capital of the Dominican Republic and, with more than three million people in its metro area, the largest city in the Caribbean; and

WHEREAS, Santo Domingo is the home to the first university, first cathedral, first castle, and first monastery in the Americas; and

WHEREAS, The earliest constructed neighborhood in Santo Domingo, Ciudad Colonial ("the Colonial City") has been declared a World Heritage site by the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) due to its rich history, architecture, and cultural significance; and

WHEREAS, Santiago de los Caballeros was founded in 1495 during the first wave of Spanish colonization of the Americas; and

WHEREAS, With roughly 1.2 million people in its metro area, Santiago de los Caballeros is the second largest city in the Dominican Republic and the fifth largest city in the Caribbean; and

WHEREAS, Santiago de los Caballeros has at times served as the capital of the Dominican Republic and is currently the capital of the Santiago Province; and

WHEREAS, The second major battle of the Dominican War for Independence took place in Santiago de los Caballeros and was a pivotal victory for the greatly outnumbered Dominican forces; and

WHEREAS, Santiago de los Caballeros is a major commercial and industrial center that is home to many of the Dominican Republic's largest manufacturers and employers; and

WHEREAS, Rhode Island is home to 34 thousand Dominicans, who have made significant contributions to the cultural and economic development of our great city, while maintaining significant ties to the homeland of their ancestors; and

WHEREAS, On July 15th, 2003, the Providence City Council passed Resolution No. 537, establishing a Sister City relationship with Santo Domingo Distrito Nacional; and

WHEREAS, A Sister City relationship will promote understanding between the people of both countries, facilitating and expanding upon the existing strong ties between Providence, Santo Domingo, and Santiago de los Caballeros, and creating new opportunities for humanitarian and social exchanges between the United States and the Dominican Republic.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Providence City Council does hereby declare and re-establish an official Sister City relationship between the City of Providence and Santo Domingo Distrito Nacional.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Providence City Council does hereby declare and establish an official Sister City relationship between the City of Providence and Municipio de Santiago de los Caballeros.
