

RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL

No. 164

Approved March 24, 2003

WHEREAS, Samuel J. Shamoon began his service in city employment over 20 years ago, and

WHEREAS, He has enjoyed a strong reputation through his long history as a community planner both in Providence and in neighboring communities, and

WHEREAS, He has held numerous leadership roles in the Providence Department of Planning & Development, including Principal Planner, Associate Director of Planning, and for the past nine months, Director of the Department, and

WHEREAS, Mr. Shamoon has served the city with honesty, integrity and a comprehensive and positive vision for planning and development in the City of Providence, and

WHEREAS, Mr. Shamoon has been praised by community organizations and the business community alike for his professional acumen and ingenuity, and

WHEREAS, His knowledge of planning issues, his great love for the City of Providence, and his cooperative spirit are well-known and will be sorely missed.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the members of the Providence City Council do hereby extend their thanks and gratitude to Samuel J. Shamoon and wish him great success and good fortune in all his future endeavors.

IN CITY COUNCIL
MAR 12 2003
READ AND PASSED

PRES.

Michael A. Clement
CLERK MB

APPROVED

3/24/03
MAYOR

Councilwoman Williams, Council President Lombardi, Councilmen Allen, Aporte,
Butler, DeLuca, Councilwoman DiBuzze, Councilmen Hallett, Iglizzi, Jackson, Lura, Mancini, Councilwoman Romano, Councilman Segal, Councilwoman Young.

Resolution for March 6, 2003 by Councilwoman Rita M. Williams
Co-Sponsored by Ronald W. Allen, Luis A. Aponte, Patrick K. Butler, Joseph DeLuca, Josephine DiRuzzo, Terrence M. Hassett, John Igliazzi, Kevin Jackson, Peter S. Mancini,

A Resolution Expressing Thanks to Samuel J. Shamoan for His Years of Public Service to the City of Providence

Segal,
Young,
Luna,
Lombardi

WHEREAS Samuel J. Shamoan began his service in city employment over 20 years ago;

WHEREAS he has enjoyed a strong reputation through his long history as a community planner both in Providence and in neighboring communities;

WHEREAS he has held numerous leadership roles in the Providence Department of Planning & Development, including principal planner, associate director of planning, and for the past nine months, director of the department;

WHEREAS Mr. Shamoan has served the city with honesty, integrity and a comprehensive and positive vision for planning and development in the city of Providence;

WHEREAS Mr. Shamoan has been praised by community organizations and the business community alike for his professional acumen and ingenuity;

WHEREAS his knowledge of planning issues, his great love for the city of Providence, and his cooperative spirit are well-known and will be sorely missed;

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the Providence City Council do hereby extend their thanks and gratitude to Samuel J. Shamoan and wish him great success and good fortune in all his future endeavors.