RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL

No. 12

Approved January 8, 1960

Resolved,

That this City Council, on behalf of the citizens of this City, extends hearty congratulations and best wishes to Rt. Rev. Monsignor Thomas F. Maloney on the occasion of his appointment by His Holiness, Pope John XXIII to be the Auxiliary Bishop of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Providence.

Monsignor Maloney, a native of the Fox Point section and a product of our local schools - Cleary School, LaSalle Academy and Providence College - has had an illustrious career in the Holy Priesthood since his ordination at Louvain, Belgium on July 13, 1930. He served as Chaplain at St. Joseph's Hospital, Elmhurst Academy and St. Mary's Academy at Bayview prior to his assignment to parish work at St. Paul's Church in 1934 which came to a close in 1952 when he accepted the Rectorship of the American College, Louvain, Belgium at the request of Board of Bishops of the United States.

A keen student, a gifted teacher and an astute administrator, the then Father Maloney re-opened the American College at Louvain which had been closed for several years because of World War II, and where his attainments have since merited the many honors bestowed upon him.

In 1955 Pope Pius XII elevated him to the dignity of a domestic prelate with the title of Right Reverend Monsignor, in 1957 the Belgium hierarchy named him Professor Extraordinary of Theology and Providence College awarded him an honorary degree of Doctor of Sacred Theology.

His honors and renown reflect credit on his home diocese of Providence where he is returning to assist the Most Reverend Russell J. McVinney, D.D. in furthering the spiritual needs of more than a half million souls.

It is the desire of this City Council, not only to extend to him hearty felicitations on his elevation as Auxiliary Bishop of Providence but also to assure him of their co-operation in his works of mercy and the fond hope that he will be long spared to pursue his sacred duties.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That this Resolution be inscribed on the records of this City Council and the City Clerk directed to transmit to Auxiliary Bishop-Elect Maloney an engrossed copy of the same.
