Approved November 6, 1972

WHEREAS, Jackie Robinson, an outstanding sport luminary and model American whose conduct, as an athlete and a citizen, brought credit to his race and the professional sport of Baseball, passed on to his Eternal Reward, and

WHEREAS, Jackie Robinson, who personified fair play in all his endeavors, broke the color barrier in Major League Baseball more than one-quarter of a century ago, thus establishing the fact that sports-minded America never intended a proven athlete's ability to be sidelined because of color, and

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that in the death of Jackie Robinson, His Honor, Mayor Joseph A.
