

RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL

No. 298

Approved June 26, 2014

WHEREAS, Roger Williams Park has been a treasured destination for Rhode Islanders for more than 120 years; and

WHEREAS, With 435 acres of ponds, gardens, and natural landscape, Roger Williams Park is the largest area in Rhode Island on the National Register of Historic Places; and

WHEREAS, Roger Williams Park is the host site for many festivals, fundraisers, and local cultural events; and

WHEREAS, In 2013 alone, more than one million people visited Roger Williams Park; and

WHEREAS, Roger Williams Park offers educational and recreational activities and attractions for children, adults, and families, such as the Botanical Center, the Casino, the Carousel Village, the Temple to Music, the Todd Morsilli tennis courts, the Tim O'Neill baseball fields, and the Museum of Natural History and Planetarium; and

WHEREAS, The Roger Williams Park Zoo has received national recognition for its conservation efforts, including numerous awards from the Association of Zoos and Aquariums; and

WHEREAS, Senate Bill 3000 would provide for a bond referendum at the election to be held in November 2014 authorizing the issuance of refunding bonds and temporary notes of the state in the aggregate amount of eighteen million dollars ($18,000,000) for improvements and renovations to Roger Williams Park, including a new education center to meet increased demand, renovations converting the existing education center for new uses, construction of a new tropical rainforest building to house rare and endangered species, and improvements to roads, bridges, sidewalks, and walkways within Roger Williams Park; and

WHEREAS, The new facilities, amenities, and improvements proposed in Senate Bill 3000 would greatly enhance both Roger Williams Park's educational and recreational programming, providing long lasting benefits to local residents and visitors from all over the region; and

WHEREAS, The Providence City Council has a moral obligation to protect and maintain local historic treasures, such as Roger Williams Park, so that they may be enjoyed by future generations of Rhode Islanders.

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, That the Providence City Council does hereby urge the General Assembly to pass Senate Bill 3000.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That, upon passage, copies of this resolution be sent to the sponsors of Senate Bill 3000, the President of the Senate, the Chairman of the Senate Committee on Finance, and to all members of the Providence General Assembly delegation.

PRES.

ACTING CLERK

I HEREBY APPROVE.

Mayor
Date: 6/26/14

19 Provides funds to construct a new education center to meet the increased demand for

1 education programs; to renovate and convert the existing education center into a world class
2 reptile facility; for demolition of existing facilities and construction of a new tropical rainforest 3 building to house rare and endangered animals and event space; or for other improvements to the 4 Roger Williams Park Zoo.

5 (b) Roger Williams Park $3,000,000

6 Provides funds for construction and reconstruction of roads, bridges, sidewalks and 7 walkways within Roger Williams Park.”

8 SECTION 2. Ballot labels and applicability of general election laws. The secretary of 9 state shall prepare and deliver to the state board of elections ballot labels for the projects provided 10 for in section 1 hereof with the designations "approve" or "reject" provided next to the description 11 of such project to enable voters to approve or reject such proposition. The general election laws, 12 so far as consistent herewith, shall apply to this proposition.

13 SECTION 3. Approval of projects by the people. If a majority of the people voting on the 14 proposition provided for in section 1 hereof shall vote to approve the proposition as to any project 15 provided for in section 1 hereof, said project shall be deemed to be approved by the people. The 16 authority to issue bonds, refunding bonds and temporary notes of the state shall be limited to the 17 aggregate amount for all such projects as set forth in the proposition provided for in section 1 18 hereof which has been approved by the people.

19 SECTION 4. Bonds for capital development program. The general treasurer is hereby 20 authorized and empowered with the approval of the governor and in accordance with the 21 provisions of this act, to issue from time to time capital development bonds in serial form in the 22 name and on behalf of the state in amounts as may be specified from time to time by the governor 23 in an aggregate principal amount not to exceed the total amount for all projects approved by the 24 people and designated as "capital development loan of 2014 bonds;" provided, however, that the 25 aggregate principal amount of such capital development bonds and of any temporary notes 26 outstanding at any one time issued in anticipation thereof pursuant to section 7 hereof shall not 27 exceed the total amount for all such projects as have been approved by the people. All provisions 28 in this act relating to "bonds" shall also be deemed to apply to "refunding bonds".

29 Capital development bonds issued under this act shall be in denominations of one 30 thousand dollars ($1,000) each, or multiples thereof, and shall be payable in any coin or currency 31 of the United States which at the time of payment shall be legal tender for public and private 32 debts. These capital development bonds shall bear such date or dates, mature at a specified time 33 or times, but not beyond the end of the twentieth (20th) state fiscal year following the state fiscal 34 year in which they are issued, bear interest payable semi-annually at a specified rate or different

1 or varying rates, be payable at a designated time or times at a specified place or places, be subject 2 to expressed terms of redemption or recall, with or without premium, be in a form, with or 3 without interest coupons attached, carry such registration, conversion, reconversion, transfer, debt 4 retirement, acceleration and other provisions as may be fixed by the general treasurer, with the 5 approval of the governor, upon each issue of such capital development bonds at the time of each 6 issue. Whenever the governor shall approve the issuance of such capital development bonds, he 7 or she shall certify approval to the secretary of state; the bonds shall be signed by the general 8 treasurer and countersigned by the manual or facsimile signature of the secretary of state and 9 shall bear the seal of the state or a facsimile thereof. The approval of the governor shall be 10 endorsed on each bond so approved with a facsimile of his or her signature.

11 SECTION 5. Refunding bonds for 2014 capital development program. The general 12 treasurer is hereby authorized and empowered, with the approval of the governor and in 13 accordance with the provisions of this act, to issue from time to time bonds to refund the 2014 14 capital development program bonds in the name and on behalf of the state, in amounts as may be 15 specified from time to time by the governor in an aggregate principal amount not to exceed the 16 total amount approved by the people, to be designated as "capital development program loan of 17 2014 refunding bonds" (hereinafter "refunding bonds").

18 The general treasurer, with the approval of the governor, shall fix the terms and form of 19 any refunding bonds issued under this act in the same manner as the capital development bonds 20 issued under this act, except that the refunding bonds may not mature more than twenty (20) 21 years from the date of original issue of the capital development bonds being refunded. The 22 proceeds of the refunding bonds, exclusive of any premium and accrual interest and net the 23 underwriters' cost, and cost of bond insurance, shall, upon their receipt, be paid by the general 24 treasurer immediately to the paying agent for the capital development bonds which are to be 25 called and prepaid. The paying agent shall hold the refunding bond proceeds in trust until they are 26 applied to prepay the capital development bonds. While such proceeds are held in trust, they may 27 be invested for the benefit of the state in obligations of the United States of America or the state 28 of Rhode Island.

29 If the general treasurer shall deposit with the paying agent for the capital development 30 bonds the proceeds of the refunding bonds or proceeds from other sources amounts that, when 31 invested in obligations of the United States or the state of Rhode Island, are sufficient to pay all 32 principal, interest, and premium, if any, on the capital development bonds until these bonds are 33 called for prepayment, then such capital development bonds shall not be considered debts of the 34 state of Rhode Island for any purpose from the date of deposit of such monies with the paying

1 agent. The refunding bonds shall continue to be a debt of the state until paid.

2 The term "bond" shall include "note", and the term "refunding bonds" shall include 3 "refunding notes" when used in this act.

4 SECTION 6. Proceeds of capital development program. The general treasurer is directed 5 to deposit the proceeds from the sale of capital development bonds issued under this act, 6 exclusive of premiums and accrued interest and net the underwriters' cost, and cost of bond 7 insurance, in one or more of the depositories in which the funds of the state may be lawfully kept 8 in special accounts (hereinafter cumulatively referred to as "such capital development bond 9 fund") appropriately designated for each of the portions of the project set forth in section 1 hereof 10 which shall have been approved by the people to be used for the purpose of paying the cost of all 11 such portions of the project so approved.

12 All monies in the capital development bond fund shall be expended for the purposes 13 specified in the proposition provided for in section 1 hereof under the direction and supervision of 14 the director of administration (hereinafter referred to as "director"). The director or his or her 15 designee shall be vested with all power and authority necessary or incidental to the purposes of 16 this act, including but not limited to, the following authority: (1) To acquire land or other real 17 property or any interest, estate or right therein as may be necessary or advantageous to 18 accomplish the purposes of this act; (2) To direct payment for the preparation of any reports, 19 plans and specifications, and relocation expenses and other costs such as for furnishings, 20 equipment designing, inspecting and engineering, required in connection with the implementation 21 of any projects set forth in section 1 hereof; (3) To direct payment for the costs of construction, 22 rehabilitation, enlargement, provision of service utilities, and razing of facilities, and other 23 improvements to land in connection with the implementation of any projects set forth in section 1 24 hereof; and (4) To direct payment for the cost of equipment, supplies, devices, materials and labor 25 for repair, renovation or conversion of systems and structures as necessary for 2014 capital 26 development program bonds or notes hereunder from the proceeds thereof. No funds shall be 27 expended in excess of the amount of the capital development bond fund designated for each 28 project authorized in section 1 hereof. With respect to the bonds and temporary notes described in 29 section 1, the proceeds shall be utilized for the following purposes:

30 Question 1 relating to bonds in the amount of eighteen million dollars ($18,000,000) to 31 be provided to the department of environmental management to make grants to the city of 32 Providence for improvements and renovations to the Roger Williams Park and the Roger 33 Williams Park Zoo to be used with other federal, state, municipal and private funds to be 34 allocated as follows:

1 (a) Roger Williams Park Zoo $15,000,000
2 Provides funds to construct a new education center to meet the increased demand for 3 education programs; to renovate and convert the existing education center into a world class
4 reptile facility; for demolition of existing facilities and construction of a new tropical rainforest
5 building to house rare and endangered animals and event space; or for other improvements to the 6 Roger Williams Park Zoo.

7 (b) Roger Williams Park $3,000,000
8 Provides funds for construction and reconstruction of roads, bridges, sidewalks and 9 walkways within Roger Williams Park.

10 SECTION 7. Sale of bonds and notes. Any bonds or notes issued under the authority of 11 this act shall be sold from time to time at not less than the principal amount thereof, in such mode 12 and on such terms and conditions as the general treasurer, with the approval of the governor, shall 13 deem to be for the best interests of the state.

14 Any premiums and accrued interest, net of the cost of bond insurance and underwriter's 15 discount, which may be received on the sale of the capital development bonds or notes shall 16 become part of the Rhode Island Capital Plan Fund of the state, unless directed by federal law or 17 regulation to be used for some other purpose.

18 In the event that the amount received from the sale of the capital development bonds or 19 notes exceeds the amount necessary for the purposes stated in section 6 hereof, the surplus may 20 be used to the extent possible to retire the bonds as the same may become due, to redeem them in 21 accordance with the terms thereof or otherwise to purchase them as the general treasurer, with the 22 approval of the governor, shall deem to be for the best interests of the state.

23 Any bonds or notes issued under the provisions of this act and coupons on any capital 24 development bonds, if properly executed by the manual or facsimile signatures of officers of the 25 state in office on the date of execution shall be valid and binding according to their tenor, 26 notwithstanding that before the delivery thereof and payment therefor, any or all such officers 27 shall for any reason have ceased to hold office.

28 SECTION 8. Bonds and notes to be tax exempt and general obligations of the state. All 29 bonds and notes issued under the authority of this act shall be exempt from taxation in the state 30 and shall be general obligations of the state, and the full faith and credit of the state is hereby 31 pledged for the due payment of the principal and interest on each of such bonds and notes as the 32 same shall become due.

33 SECTION 9. Investment of monies in fund. All monies in the capital development fund 34 not immediately required for payment pursuant to the provisions of this act may be invested by

1 the investment commission, as established by chapter 10 of title 35, pursuant to the provisions of 2 such chapter; provided, however, that the securities in which the capital development fund is 3 invested shall remain a part of the capital development fund until exchanged for other securities; 4 and provided further, that the income from investments of the capital development fund shall 5 become a part of the general fund of the state and shall be applied to the payment of debt service 6 charges of the state, unless directed by federal law or regulation to be used for some other 7 purpose, or to the extent necessary, to rebate to the United States Treasury any income from 8 investments (including gains from the disposition of investments) of proceeds of bonds or notes 9 to the extent deemed necessary to exempt (in whole or in part) the interest paid on such bonds or 10 notes from federal income taxation.

11 SECTION 10. Appropriation. To the extent the debt service on these bonds is not 12 otherwise provided, a sum sufficient to pay the interest and principal due each year on bonds and 13 notes hereunder is hereby annually appropriated out of any money in the treasury not otherwise 14 appropriated.

15 SECTION 11. Advances from general fund. The general treasurer is authorized from time 16 to time with the approval of the director and the governor, in anticipation of the issue of notes or 17 bonds under the authority of this act, to advance to the capital development bond fund for the 18 purposes specified in section 6 hereof, any funds of the state not specifically held for any 19 particular purpose; provided, however, that all advances made to the capital development bond 20 fund shall be returned to the general fund from the capital development bond fund forthwith upon 21 the receipt by the capital development fund of proceeds resulting from the issue of notes or bonds 22 to the extent of such advances.

23 SECTION 12. Federal assistance and private funds. In carrying out this act, the director, 24 or his or her designee, is authorized on behalf of the state, with the approval of the governor, to 25 apply for and accept any federal assistance which may become available for the purpose of this 26 act, whether in the form of loan or grant or otherwise, to accept the provision of any federal 27 legislation therefor, to enter into, act and carry out contracts in connection therewith, to act as 28 agent for the federal government in connection therewith, or to designate a subordinate so to act.
29 Where federal assistance is made available, the project shall be carried out in accordance with 30 applicable federal law, the rules and regulations thereunder and the contract or contracts 31 providing for federal assistance, notwithstanding any contrary provisions of state law.

32 Subject to the foregoing, any federal funds received for the purposes of this act shall be 33 deposited in the capital development bond fund and expended as a part thereof. The director, or 34 his or her designee may also utilize any private funds that may be made available for the purposes

1 of this act.

2 SECTION 13. Effective Date. Sections 1, 2, 3, and 13 of this act shall take effect upon 3 passage. The remaining sections of this act shall take effect when and if the state board of 4 elections shall certify to the secretary of state that a majority of the qualified electors voting on 5 the propositions contained in section 1 hereof have indicated their approval of all or any projects 6 thereunder.
