ROLL CALL

INVOCATION

The Invocation is given by COUNCILMAN JOHN J. IGLIOZZI.

"If we could all take a moment first of all. Let's think of home, let's think of family, let's think of friends, loved ones that are with us today and loved ones that we miss that are not with us. I also want to take a moment for us to take a point of reflection that this is a holy season for many religions, but unfortunately as myself as a Roman Catholic it's also an extremely disturbing time. On one of our holiest days a horrific event occurred which rocked our religion. If your Catholic or you subscribe in a formal fashion, having such an atrocity occur on Easter Sunday is something that gives us all pause. Although, all of us around this floor here are always striving for folks to be more open minded, to be more loving and caring towards each other and this shocking reminder shows that we still have a lot of work to do to bring us all together in a more harmonious community, to respect each other's religions, backgrounds and sexes. Let's have a moment of silence for these folks and their loved ones and families that were lost on this holy day. Thank you and God Bless."
