Resolution Expressing Sorrow upon the tragic death of Sergeant Cornel Young, Jr., and suggesting necessary steps to bridge the unfortunate chasm that has developed between the Providence Police Department and the Providence Community.

Whereas, The tragic death of Sergeant Young can never be forgotten, but from this sad and unfortunate circumstance, we can create the changes necessary to repair the breach that has developed between the Providence Police Department and the Providence Community. We must work together to build a Providence Police Department that fully reflects the wonderful diversity that exists in our beautiful cosmopolitan city; and

Whereas, The City of Providence needs to formulate a comprehensive plan to achieve the aforementioned goals. The following items should become part of any serious plan:

1. The immediate implementation of a comprehensive Sensitivity Training Program for all current police officers, and all future candidates to the Providence Police Academy.

2. The immediate implementation of a comprehensive Civility Training Program for all current police officers, and all future candidates to the Providence Police Academy.

3. The immediate implementation of a comprehensive Affirmative Action Program to insure that the make-up of our police department fully reflects the cultural diversity of our city. For the next two Providence Police Training Academies, a goal should be set for having 75 percent of the membership of those academies be minorities. This plan should also insure that the doors to advancement, promotion, and opportunity, be open to our minority police officers.

Whereas, Relief in the form of partial Demolition and Boarding Lien abatements is requested for the property located at 552-554 Cranston Street, listed as Lot 74, on Assessor's Plat 31, in the office of Tax Collector in the City of Providence, and

Whereas, A Boarding Lien on said property in the amount of $96.00, in the Recorder of Deed's Office of the City of Providence (Book #2701, Page #243), was recorded on the 4th day of February 1993, to the owners DOM Investments, and Nancy Jarvin, and
