There are two kinds of Advertising

That which the Buyer seeks, and that which is thrust upon him.

Both are good

Display advertising suggests wants and creates desire. Of its tremendous power many present day successes bear witness.

Reference Advertising steps in when the desire has been created. It shows where the goods can be purchased and gives information that the buyer wants when he wants to buy.

A Connecting Link

The weakness of display advertising is that often a need is not realized until the ad that suggested it is misplaced or thrown away.

A shrewd buyer usually looks the field over before buying and where is so logical a place to look as in this book.

A Help to You

In your buying, use the lists in this book. If you see a name in heavy type it is because that concern thought enough of your possible business to make it easy for you to find them. If it says "See page — —", you will find there information that will really help you.

Are You Covered

Have you made it easy for buyers to find you, by putting a bold type listing under every heading where they might look for you or a competitor? Have you put information in the "Selling Section" that will really help a buyer, and point to you as the one who can serve him best?

If not, make a note to do it in the next edition, and let us tell you now how little it costs to be protected.

SAMPSON & MURDOCK COMPANY

470 ATLANTIC AVENUE, BOSTON, MASS.

A Public Service Publication

Few lines of Business have such a varied clientele as has the City Directory. It serves high and low, rich and poor, with equal impartiality and with profit to all.

It answers the questions What? and Who? which arise in daily Business life and fills a position occupied by no other publication under the sun. It is often used from its issue until it falls to pieces and seldom will you find one entirely discarded while its leaves cling together. A publication which is used so universally and whose life is so long, must appeal to every shrewd business man as a most desirable advertising medium.

RHODE ISLAND STATE BUSINESS DIRECTORY

FOR THE YEAR COMMENCING MAY 1

VOLUME LXXXVIII

Containing

Alphabetical Section (Page 437) Gives names, occupations and addresses of all men twenty years old or over, women who carry on business, widows, and all business houses. Dates of deaths during the previous year are given, and where possible, the addresses of people who have moved to other cities. The names of partners in firms are given in this department, with much other information that cannot be found elsewhere.

Business Directory (Page 1391) All business houses, individuals in business for themselves, and professional men are listed without charge under the heading that best describes them. The more progressive houses, realizing that it pays to be easily found, pay a nominal charge for special listings in heavy type, under every heading where a buyer might look for them, cross-indexed to a descriptive space in the "reference section."

Advertising Department (Page 101) Where more information than is possible to give under the headings is placed on file for buyer's and seller's reference the value of this department cannot be estimated. It is an index of the best business interests of the city, and stands for them and the city in reference libraries all over the country, as well as on the desks of progressive business men. It is accessible to everybody, and the logical place to look for specific information. This probably explains why no other form of publicity is so generally endorsed by business men, as a glance at this department will show.

Map (Opposite) The clearest map ever made of the city, on a scale large enough to see, and small enough to be handled easily.

Street Directory (Page 55) A complete list of Streets, giving numbers at intersections, and enabling one to tell at once between what streets a given number lies, and the quickest way to get there.

An alphabetical list of Halls, Blocks and Buildings from which street and number may be found for addresses which only give name of a certain building.

Miscellaneous Information (Page 13) Organization of City Departments, giving officers—Cemeteries—Post Office branches—Parcel Post zones and rates—Churches and ministers—Societies, Institutions, etc., with officers—State officers and departments—U. S officers and departments—Courts—Population tables—Calendar, etc.

Providence was founded in 1636 by Roger Williams. Incorporated in 1832. The oldest bank in America and the first Baptist meeting house in the country are located in the city. Brown University, founded in 1764, and many institutions of the early eighteen hundreds are within the city limits. The first directory of names and addresses of persons located in the city was published in 1824.

Providence is the second city of New England in point of population, a fact of special significance, inasmuch as the figures of the United States Census Bureau credit the city with 280,000 inhabitants, yet its area is only nineteen square miles. This City is the trading centre for an immediately adjoining population of fully five hundred thousand people; furthermore, if we include an extended area, the population of which turns to Providence more than to any other city, that trading population is increased to seven hundred and fifty thousand. Recent statistical estimates prepared for the Census Bureau with a view to establishing boundaries for Metropolitan Providence place it seventh in area among cities of the United States.

Many factors contribute in making Providence a great city in respect, not only to population, but to industrial activity. Situated as it is on Narragansett Bay with its deep channel and other superior water facilities, the city is in a position to call to its service transportation by water as well as by rail. The activities of the Port of Providence increase year by year and they will expand at a tremendous rate when there shall be established in the city elevators which can supply grain cargo to fill the bottoms of ocean steamers.

Providence is more than usually well provided with excellent public utility facilities. Its Gas Company is known as the most efficient in the industry in New England. Its highly efficient electric service has grown to very large proportions. The street railway system, now embodied in the Narragansett Electric Company, furnishes service not only within the city, but to many outlying points. Its telephone service is the equal of the best in the New England Telephone and Telegraph system, of which it is a part.

The densly populated industrial district of Providence, with its tremendous population to be fed and clothed, is known in all parts of the United States as a distributing point of great importance. Because of the excellent educational opportunities offered, there is a large student population attending Brown University, The Women's College in Brown University, Providence College and various smaller private schools.

Providence is particularly fortunate in having a diversity of manufactures. It is not dependent on any one industry. The great industries which have distinguished the city for many years include textiles, silver, jewelry, silverware, iron and steel. It has, for instance: the largest machine shop in the world; the largest finger ring manufacturer in the country; the largest file manufacturers in the world; the largest silverware manufacturers in the United States; the largest screw manufacturer in the world; one of the leading newspapers of the country, the Providence Journal. Back of these industries and supporting them is a great variety of products, large and small, that have a national reputation. Few cities in the United States send out daily so many small packages of so great a variety of manufactured articles as does Providence.

The city government has been carefully administered, hence Providence has one of the lowest municipal tax rates in the country, a low bonded indebtedness and numerous other advantages. Among the most important of these is the wonderful water supply, now impounded in an area some seven miles from the city, and as large as the city itself, which ensures pure water for human consumption and a plentiful supply for fire emergencies.

Providence retail trade is prosperous, as it should be, in the centre of so great a population. Likewise the wholesale trade, which reaches out over an area extending into Connecticut, Massachusetts and other New England states.

Few cities have been more active in providing adequate facilities for the care of the sick and needy; its hospitals are equal to all demands. The municipality has been active in providing for its citizens those agencies, such as parks and playgrounds, that contribute to the promotion of life and health. The parks form the centre for annual events which attract hundreds of thousands of people for enjoyment and cultural development. Best known among these events is the Annual Festival of the Providence Festival Chorus in Roger Williams Park.

Providence is an attractive city in which to do business and to live in comfort and security. This is evidenced by its continued increase of population over that which follows a steady birth-rate, due to the coming from all parts of the country of investors of both capital and labor. Newcomers are accommodated in Providence as in few other cities with publicly conducted enterprises which ensure good health, excellent educational opportunities, good living conditions and satisfactory returns.

For those who are interested in obtaining general information or detailed particulars regarding the municipality and business opportunities it is recommended they write to The Providence Chamber of Commerce.

Information

in the mass seems like a dull proposition, but when we have a need of some person or thing nothing interests us more than getting information about that person or thing.

This directory looks like a big book to be walked around or fallen over or put out of the way, until you need some information that it contains—then it becomes the handiest thing around the place.

Has it ever occurred to you how much information you could get from this book, if you really knew how to use it?

There is a great mass of information here, arranged in a logical way that experience has shown most easily referred to. It does take a little study to know how to make full use, however, like anything else worth while.

A little study that opens up a new way to save time or increase accuracy is an asset to anyone. It may be you will find a lot of information you did not know was here before, that you would have spent a lot of time and trouble to find in other ways, and you will have increased your efficiency just that much. In buying, in selling, in shipping, correspondence, granting credit, sending bills, collecting money—

Consult Your Directory

Accurate Information is worth all it costs.

PROVIDENCE STREET DIRECTORY

Copyright, 1923, Sampson & Murdock Co., Providence, R. I.

Giving the location of each street, and showing what other streets and places run from it or across it, with the number at which they intersect. From this list, the location of any number on a street can be easily ascertained: for instance, wishing to know at what part of Westminster Street No. 1129 comes, you look at Westminster Street, and find that Knight Street runs from 1069 and Bridgham Street from 1191, showing that 1129 Westminster Street would come about half-way between Knight and Bridgham Street.

IMPERIAL ROYALTIES COMPANY OF TULSA, OKLAHOMA

IMPERIAL is strictly a Holding Company, owning—in a banking capacity—petroleum ROYALTY interests exclusively.

IMPERIAL has been in business eight years and has paid 90 monthly dividends, totaling 155½% (March 30, 1928).

IMPERIAL was organized by Elisha S. Horn to facilitate the banking of ROYALTIES—the perpetual obligations of record on the principal value of lands in Oklahoma and adjacent States—similar to real estate mortgages in Providence.

IMPERIAL is the principal go-between—the connecting link—for Eastern Savings and Mid-Continent ROYALTIES.

IMPERIAL pays regular monthly dividends—a 10% return to the investor—a dependable monthly income check secured by safe principles and conservative conditions.

The Home of Good Directories

COMPILING DEPARTMENT

The City Directory has become a universal necessity in looking up new prospects, in purchasing supplies, and in marketing products. Our experience of over seventy years—our reputation for accuracy, our large force of experienced help and our complete equipment for the work, all guarantee the best in directory compilation. Don't forget that directory advertising supplements and rounds out all your other advertising by giving the most explicit directions how to find you.

ADVERTISING DEPARTMENT

Put—"We are listed in the Directory" in all your advertising copy. Addresses are often forgotten or mislaid, though the name is remembered. The firm that is properly registered in all branches of its industry is wise.
