RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL

No. 548

Approved October 16, 1959

Whereas,

this year marks the one hundredth anniversary of the founding of the Roman Catholic Parish of St. Michael, the ArchAngel of the Providence Diocese, and Whereas, from a humble beginning, when a portion of the Cathedral Parish was set apart and designated St. Bernards Parish in 1857 and, in 1859 was incorporated as the parish of St. Michael, the ArchAngel; this church has grown and flourished until it is now the largest parish in the Diocese. The huge edifice, a monument to the zeal and fortitude of its clergy and the loyalty and co-operation of its parishioners embraces an interior, beautiful to behold in its rich but dignified simplicity, and provides every facility for the Spiritual uplift of its 5,500 families. The fortitude and acumen of its former pastors, now deceased, merit the gratitude and prayers of the parishioners for providing a complete physical plant - second to none - consisting of church, rectory, grammar school, Junior High School and Convent. The parish can point with pride to the vast number of its parishioners whose efforts in the business, professional, cultural and spiritual life of this city have made Providence a better place in which to live.

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved that the congratulations and best wishes of His Honor, Mayor Walter H. Reynolds and the members of this City Council be extended Rev. Fr. Cornelius B. Collins, pastor; his worthy assistants, the good sisters and the many parishioners of St. Michaels Parish on the occasion of this noteworthy celebration.
