

RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL

No. 144

Approved March 17, 1978

WHEREAS, Roger N. Valles, a responsible and devoted City Employee in the Department of Public Parks, has been appointed as the Zoo Director, his selection topped almost forty candidates, and

WHEREAS, A devoted City Employee whose appointment culminated a dedicated career in that area of the City of Providence's Government, and

WHEREAS, Dedicated to his pursuit as an employee at the Roger Williams Park Zoo, Director Valles typifies the ambitions and goals of First Generation Americans whose progenitors migrated to the United States for the betterment of their Families,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That in congratulating Roger N. Valles as Director of the renowned Roger Williams Park Zoo, the City Council is not unmindful of his devotion to his responsibilities at the Zoo in the immediate past, but also, fully realize that his selection as Director was the result of keen processing by the Screening Committee which afforded them the opportunity to recommend the best candidate as Director.
