Re: City Council Resolutions and Requests

Dear Rose:

Please be advised that this command received the Resolutions of the City Council which are listed below and forwarded same with additional instructions to various commanding officers within this Department upon whose operations the Resolutions would have impact and upon whom it would be incumbent to allocate adequate levels of manpower with which to provide for the proper and uneventful policing of the functions.

1. City Council Resolution No. 428 - prohibition of vehicular traffic along Stadium Road on 9/7/86 to accommodate a neighborhood block party.
2. City Council Resolution No. 429 - prohibition of vehicular traffic on Crawford Street Bridge on 9/13/86 to accommodate the Pasta Challenge.
3. Unnumbered Resolution of the City Council relative to the prohibition of vehicular traffic on Warrington Street on 9/13/86 in order to accommodate a neighborhood block party.
4. Unnumbered Resolution of the City Council regarding the prohibition of vehicular traffic on Niagara Street, Atlantic Avenue and Lexington Avenue on 9/7/86 in order to accommodate a neighborhood 350th celebration.
5. Unnumbered Resolution of the City Council relative to the prohibition of vehicular traffic on Tanner Street on 9/7/86 in order to accommodate a block party.
