Mr. Ronald Tarro
City Collector
City Hall
Providence, R. I. 02903

Dear Mr. Tarro:

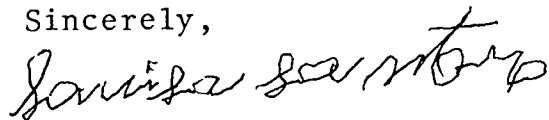

I am writing to you in regards to a piece of land located at 125 Tell St. Enclosed please find pictures of the land in question and my home located at 127 Tell St., which abuts the property.

As of now, there are a great number of liens on this property. This property is a blight in the neighborhood and is depleting the value of the homes located on Tell St. Because of that, I am interested in buying it, but I cannot afford to pay the liens. Once given the opportunity to purchase this property, I will immediately landscape it and adjoin it to my own.

I am requesting you to abate all liens on this property, and I am willing to pay $1150.77, which would be the cost of acquisition, and I am willing to pay the back taxes on land; but, again, in order to make this feasible, I would need the other liens abated.

Looking forward to a favorable reply.

Sincerely,
