“As reported on TV last night, recently, as we all know, a small tiny 11-hour-old baby was abducted from the Women and Infants Hospital and last night, we all saw a great police job.

“These Policemen, and I don’t recall their names, Detectives of the Providence Police Department, showed excellent performance and right now, I honestly believe the Providence Police Force did a great job.

“But on this case alone, these men, on a small little beeper, went to Boston and traced this thing down and they came back and found the baby and I think this is great basic police work and these Detectives, whoever they are, deserve our thanks and I just wanted to rise and say ‘Thank you very much’.”

The City Council rises to a standing ovation.
