Right To Dispute Your Bill And To An Impartial Hearing

If you believe your bill is inaccurate or for any reason payment may be withheld, you should first contact our Customer Service Department at 781-0100 (Providence Area) or toll free number shown on reverse side. If a mutually satisfactory settlement of this matter cannot be made, you have the right to submit this matter to:

Review Officer, Public Utilities Commission
100 Orange Street, Providence, Rhode Island 02903
Telephone: 277-2443

The Narragansett Electric Company will not disconnect your service pending proceedings before the commission.

Right To Electric Service During Serious Illness

If you or anyone presently and normally living in your home is SERIOUSLY ILL, we will not discontinue your electric service during such illness providing you have a registered physician certify in writing to us that such illness exists, the nature and duration of the illness. This certification must be received within seven (7) days from the date that your physician initially contacts The Narragansett Electric Company at 941-1400 (Providence Area) or toll free number shown on reverse side.

Termination of Service to Elderly or Handicapped Persons

If all residents in your household are 65 years of age or older or if any resident in your household is handicapped, the Company will not terminate your service for failure to pay the past due bill without written approval from the Division of Public Utilities. If you cannot pay your bill all at once, you may be able to work out a payment plan with the Company. The Elderly or Handicapped Forms that must be filled out are available at the Company. The Form also enables you to participate in "Third Party Notification". If you have any questions or want further information, call the Credit Department at 941-1400 (Providence area) or the telephone number on the reverse side.
