THE

Corliss Safe

THE CORLISS SAFE is radically different from all others in form and in the material used in its construction.

THE CORLISS SAFE is the only safe ever made without a door (the weakest point in all other safes.)

The form and construction of THE CORLISS SAFE is a guarantee of its proof against the practical use of explosives.

THE CORLISS SAFE is the only safe that cannot be opened by tearing its fastenings apart by means of wedges and slight explosives, for it is practically one solid piece.

THE CORLISS SAFE is the only structure made from which the contents cannot be abstracted by use of the blow-pipe and drill.

THE CORLISS SAFE is the only safe ever sold with a written guarantee that its contents cannot be abstracted within a space of thirty-six hours' continuous attack by burglars or experts.

THE CORLISS SAFE is the only safe ever made that really merits the name of Burglar Proof, it never having been burglarized.

Pamphlets and Photographs illustrating and giving full description of the Corliss Safe and Patent Vault Doors, will be sent upon application, to parties desiring to purchase.

PREFACE.

We present herewith the fifty-first number of the PROVIDENCE AND RHODE ISLAND BUSINESS DIRECTORY, with the assurances which a thorough canvass and a careful compilation warrant, and we proffer our thanks for the generous co-operation afforded us by the people of this City and State, in our endeavor to furnish to the public a reliable and comprehensive Directory.

The activity of the Department of Street Numbers and Signs, under the able management of Capt. George H. Pettis, has increased our labors to no inconsiderable extent, but we are satisfied that everything done by that department has had for its purpose the best interests of our citizens. We have, therefore, cheerfully squared our work to the requirements growing out of the numerous changes, as they applied to the Map, the Street Directory, and to the General Directory.

It is a matter for congratulation and encouragement that many of our intelligent and patriotic citizens, having learned not to wholly rely upon Municipal and State legislation have associated themselves in organizations, non partisan as to politics, for the advancement of the material interests of the city of Providence, and that already methods have been adopted and lines of work laid out, looking toward the consummation of this purpose. Among the organizations most active in this movement are the Advance Club, the R. I. Business Men's Association, and the Commercial Club, while others, including the Providence Board of Trade, Mechanics Exchange, and Jewelers' Board of Trade, are in practical sympathy.

We may therefore be assured, that in all matters pertaining to the improvement of our City, including terminal facilities, harbor improvements, sewerage, streets and highways, public parks and boulevards, as well as public schools and buildings, intelligent plans and wise methods will be suggested, and their adoption and speedy execution urged.

The changes which have occurred among our citizens during the past year, so far as the Directory takes cognizance, are as follows:—

Of those whose names appeared in the Directory of 1890, 12,280 have changed the location of their residences, 3,010 their business location, 3,055 the nature of their business or occupation, and in 150 firms changes have been made either in their names or membership.

The following is a list of citizens whose names appeared in the first Directory of Providence, published in 1824, and are recorded in the Directory of 1891. The year of birth is also given:

Thomas Harkness. 1799; James H. Read, 1801; David W. Pettey, 1801; R. H. N. Bates 1801; Edward Congdon, 1802; Thomas R. Briggs, 1807.

Northwestern Premiums Are about same as other Companies, but dividends double in most Cases. See Page 1106.

Stock in The National Mutual Building and Loan Association of New York, is better than money in a Savings Bank, because it pays a higher rate of interest, is secured by first mortgages on improved city property. ROBERT S. FLETCHER, State Agent, 9 Custom House Street.

An unprejudiced examination of the Northwestern WILL CONVINCE ANYONE OF ITS SUPERIORITY. See Page 1106.
