

RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL

No. 544

Approved September 9, 1977

WHEREAS, Walter H. Reynolds, the distinguished former Mayor of the City of Providence, Rhode Island, during his fourteen years of Mayoralty Stewardship in the said City, left many physical monuments, each attributing to his highly professional administration, and

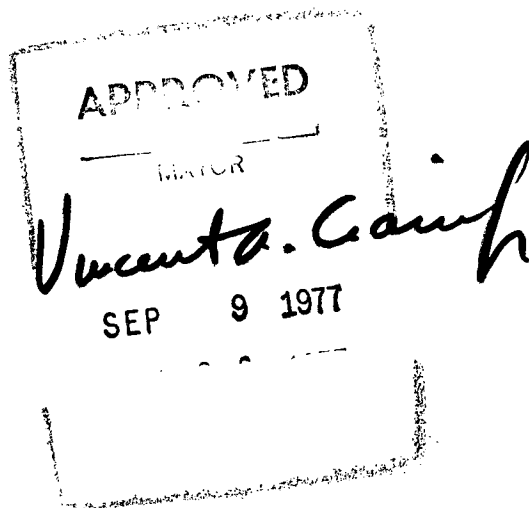

WHEREAS, notably amongst such landmarks is the Hurricane Barrier, constructed for the purpose of eliminating flood damaging of the Downtown Area of Providence, as experienced by unprecedented Hurricanes which devastated the business area of Providence,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that in tribute to the progressive administration of Walter H. Reynolds as the Twenty-Eighth Mayor of the City of Providence, Rhode Island, that structure in the Providence River Basin is hereby designated as "Mayor Walter H. Reynolds Hurricane Barrier."

The Honorable
The City Council of the City of Providence
City Hall
Providence, Rhode Island

Dear Honorable Members:

In light of the many, many years of distinguished service given to the citizens of Providence by former Mayor Walter H. Reynolds, both as a financial advisor and as the Chief Executive of Providence, I believe that we should honor this man by permanently remembering his contribution to our lives. Accordingly, I request your support for naming the Hurricane Barrier of the City the Walter H. Reynolds Hurricane Barrier, and for affixing to this facility a plaque that will recall for generations to come the esteem in which we hold this outstanding public servant.

Respectfully submitted,

Vincent A. Cianci, Jr.
