

To The Honorable Walter H. Reynolds, Mayor
To The Honorable The City Council

Annual Report of the Department of Public Welfare for the
Twelve Months Ended September 30, 1961

February 1, 1962

To the Honorable Walter H. Reynolds, Mayor, and the Honorable The City Council:

In compliance with the Charter of the City of Providence and with Chapter 2, Section 179 $\frac{1}{2}$ , of the Revised Ordinances of the City of Providence, 1946, I submit herewith the Annual Report of the Department of Public Welfare for the fiscal year ended September 30, 1961.

Foreword

It may be noted in this report that the cost of the General Public Assistance program in the City of Providence has been considerably reduced. In our reports of the last two fiscal years we were pleased to point to a decline in the number of cases and an attendant decrease in costs. Attention was called to the general improvement in our local economy and the firm policy of the Department of transferring General Public Assistance cases to other programs of assistance as speedily as eligibility for them could be established. The '59 - '60 fiscal year was particularly noteworthy in those respects. We did not view the year now ended as one through which the decline in case load and costs would be extended. Happily we are able to report that due to unforeseen developments costs have again declined.

An amendment to Title IV of the Social Security Act authorized the temporary extension of Aid to Dependent Children to the needy children of unemployed parents early in May of 1961. The City of Providence was one of the first cities in the United States to expedite the transfer of cases, wherein eligibility existed, from General Public Assistance to the Aid to Dependent Children program. Between May 4 and May 11 there was a substantial reduction in our weekly costs which continued to the end of the fiscal year. Much of this we can attribute to the federal amendment and the promptness of our social case workers in making it effective. We are hopeful that this temporary extension of ADC to children of unemployed parents will be extended beyond the present cut off date of June 30, 1962. A failure in this respect would increase our costs considerably and quickly.

Public Welfare is constantly challenged in its daily operations and fundamental philosophy. The past year has been one wherein the usual critical opinions of welfare spending of tax funds have been aggravated by a growing social climate that reflects citizen uneasiness about those who are dependent and a distorted image of the public agency for ministering to those who are in need.

The Department of Public Welfare has been mandated by the people of the City of Providence to carry through a program for the relief of distress and avoidance of hardship under defined provisions for meeting the more tangible aspects of need. Certainly there is the implicit dictum that this program shall be conducted so as to preserve and foster the dignity and worth of all who come to the Department <sup>for a</sup> ~~of~~ Assistance. Only when both of these essentials are respected do we in welfare fulfill a responsibility to the public --- those in need and those who are independent.

Our product is people and in meeting their needs, on occasion we shall undoubtedly err. Our errors must always be on the side of attempting to help individuals, families and children. To the extent that we can retain staff and provide opportunity for deepening their understanding and increasing their skill we shall better serve the community. Our tasks for the future are clear: to provide assistance promptly and constructively to those who are eligible for our services; to seek ways to return our clients, wherever possible, to self dependency; to share in efforts to prevent dependency; to increase our skill and efficiency in doing these jobs. To these ends, I solicit the cooperation, understanding, support and charity of attitude of all of our citizens.

As in the past, the Department of Public Welfare has had invaluable resources --- a Mayor and a City Council who have been unswerving in a belief in the soundness of government's responsibility for meeting mass need, and a staff without whose devotion and loyalty the services of the Department would certainly fail.

Respectfully submitted,

James V. Mc Govern
