Dear City Council President John J. Lombardi:

Voter Initiative Alliance (VIA) is a non-partisan, statewide consortium of organizations joining together for the purpose of placing a referendum for Voter Initiative on the ballot in 2006. VIA plans to kickoff a statewide campaign for Voter Initiative in mid-September. We cordially invite you, as an elected leader of your City or Town, to join us in playing a role at that event by pledging your support for Voter Initiative.

Members of VIA

Organization

In a 1996 non-binding referendum, Voter Initiative was approved by the voters. The General Assembly has since failed to take the action required to place it on the ballot for a binding vote. Since then, each year, Senator Marc A. Cote and Representative Roger A. Picard have introduced Voter Initiative legislation that has never passed out of committee to the floor of either house for a vote. We believe the time has come for the citizens of Rhode Island to decide the issue. As a first step, we plan to obtain a minimum of 20,000 signatures of R.I. registered voters on a petition requesting the General Assembly to place the matter on the ballot in November, 2006. Also General Assembly members and state general officers as well as local elected officials are being asked to sign a pledge to support Voter Initiative and/or to support a binding referendum to let the people decide.

A self-addressed, stamped reply pledge card, a copy of the petition, and the legislation upon which the petition is based are enclosed. Your signature on the reply card and its return on or before September 7, 2005, will be a welcome and positive step toward assuring that this issue is considered in a non-partisan manner by those in positions of leadership in local government.

Among the early members of the VIA are: Operation Clean Government, the Rhode Island Manufacturers Association, the League of Women Voters, the Rhode Island Shoreline Coalition, Portsmouth Concerned Citizens, the Rhode Island Republican Party, R.I.G.H.T., The Island Watch Dogs Association, Democracy Matters, RAFT, and the North Kingstown Taxpayers Organization. We expect others to join prior to the mid-September kickoff.

For additional information, please do not hesitate to contact Bob Arruda (225-7965) or Harry Staley (322-2051).

Sincerely yours,

Robert G. Flanders Jr.

STATE OF RHODE ISLAND

IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY

JANUARY SESSION, A.D. 2005

JOINT RESOLUTION

TO APPROVE AND PUBLISH AND SUBMIT TO THE ELECTORS A PROPOSITION OF AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE (INITIATIVE AND REFERENDUM)

Introduced By: Senators Cote, Badeau, Bates, Raptakis, and Lenihan

Date Introduced: January 25, 2005

Referred To: Senate Constitutional & Gaming Issues

1 RESOLVED. That a majority of all members elected to each house of the general
2 assembly voting therefor, the following amendment to the constitution of the state be proposed to
3 the qualified electors of the state in accordance with the provisions of Article XIV of the 4 constitution for their approval and that it take the place of Article VI Sections 1 and 2 which are 5 hereby amended to read as follows:

6 ARTICLE VI

7 Section 1. Constitution supreme law of the state. -- This Constitution shall be the 8 supreme law of the state, and any law inconsistent therewith shall be void. The general assembly
9 shall pass all laws necessary to carry this Constitution into effect. The legislative power of the 10 state shall be vested in a general assembly, consisting of a senate and a house of representatives,
11 both to be elected by the people, but the people reserve to themselves the power to propose laws
12 and amendments to the constitution and to enact or reject the same at a general election without 13 the approval of the general assembly, and also reserve power at their own option to approve or 14 reject at a general election any act, section or part of any act of the general assembly.

15 Section 2. Power vested in general assembly. -- Concurrence of houses required to enact 16 laws. -- Style of laws. Power to enact legislation. -- Enactment and style of laws. -- Power of the 17 general assembly. -- Initiative and referendum. -- A. The legislative power, under this 18 Constitution, and subject to the reservations set forth in Section 1 hereof, shall be vested in two 19 houses, the one to be called the senate, the other the house of representatives; and both together

1 the general assembly. The concurrence of the two houses shall be necessary to the enactment of 2 laws. The style of their laws shall be, It is enacted by the general assembly as follows:

3 B. The people reserve the right to themselves the power to propose laws and amendments
4 to the constitution and to adopt or reject the same. Qualified voters shall have the power through 5 petition to enact statutes and to amend the constitution at general elections. This power shall be 6 known as initiative and referendum. No initiative shall be permitted which shall abridge the civil 7 rights or liberties, including those guaranteed by Article I of the Rhode Island Constitution, of 8 any individual or group of individuals and no initiative shall be permitted which would repeal or 9 amend this sentence. The superior court shall have original jurisdiction to hear complaints arising 10 under this section on an expedited basis. Any individual shall have standing to bring an action at 11 any time to enforce this section.

12 C. This article does not permit the proposal of any constitutional amendment that 13 appropriates state revenue. This article does not permit the proposal of any constitutional
14 amendment that diminishes state revenues by the reduction or limitation of a tax or fee. This 15 article does not permit the proposal of any constitutional amendment that affects the generation or 16 expenditure of state revenues through the ordinary legislative budget process.

17 D. This article does not permit the proposal of any statute or statutory amendment that 18 makes an appropriation or otherwise requires the expenditure of money, unless such statute or 19 amendment also enacts a commensurate increase in revenues and/or decreases in revenue 20 appropriations, not prohibited by the constitution; provided, however, that this requirement shall 21 not apply to a proposal for the appropriation or expenditure of less than two hundred fifty
22 thousand dollars ($250,000), which amount shall be adjusted annually commencing in fiscal year
23 2007/2008 to reflect changes in the cost-of-living as determined by the United States government.
24 This article does not permit the proposal of any statute or any statutory amendment that 25 diminishes state revenue, unless such statute or amendment also enacts a commensurate increase 26 in revenues and/or decreases in revenue appropriations to accommodate the projected reduction in 27 state revenue. Any initiative affecting the state budget must be prospective in nature and may not 28 be effective prior to the fiscal year subsequent to the general election.

29 E. To be eligible to be placed on a general election ballot a statutory initiative petition
30 shall be signed by at least a number of qualified voters equal to five percent (5%) of the total
31 number of votes cast for the office of governor at the last preceding general election for that 32 office, and a petition to amend the constitution shall be signed by at least a number of qualified 33 voters equal to ten percent (10%) of the total number of votes cast for the office of governor at 34 the last preceding general election for that office. To qualify for certification, signatures from at

1 least twenty (20) cities and/or towns, of which four (4) must be cities, must meet the above
2 percentage requirements.

3 F. For certified initiative petitions, initiative petitioners shall have two hundred ten (210)
4 days from the date the secretary of state has date and time stamped, assigned a petition reference
5 number, and issued the first initiative petition forms to collect and file with the local canvassing
6 authorities the requisite number of signatures, and such signatures may be filed separately with 7 the authorities as they are collected by the petitioners. The local canvassing authorities shall 8 certify the authenticity of the initiative petition signatures and advise the secretary of state within 9 thirty (30) business days of receipt of each initiative petition form.

10 G. (1) An initiative shall be approved by a majority of the qualified voters voting thereon.
11 If so approved, it shall become part of the statutory law of the state or part of the constitution as 12 the case may be and shall take effect from and after the official declaration of the vote thereon by 13 proclamation of the state board of elections, or its successor, but in no event later than thirty (30)
14 days after the vote has been certified unless otherwise provided in the initiative petition.

15 (2) The veto power of the governor shall not extend to an initiative by the voters.

16 (3) If any provisions of constitutional amendments and/or laws approved by the people at 17 the same election are in conflict with each other, then the provisions which received the largest 18 number of affirmative votes at such election shall govern; and in any other case an initiative
19 approved by the voters shall supersede any conflicting law.

20 (4) The general assembly shall provide such funds as may be required to implement an 21 approved initiative.

22 (5) The general assembly shall not, within four (4) years after passage, repeal or alter any 23 such statutory initiative unless by three-fourths (3/4) vote of both houses.

24 (6) Unless an initiative which has a singular or exclusive impact on any city or town is 25 approved by a majority of those voting in that city or town, said initiative shall not take effect.

26 H. The provisions of Article XIV of this constitution shall not be construed to deny, limit 27 or disparage the people's right to propose or amend the constitution through initiative and 28 referendum.

29 I. The general assembly shall enact implementing legislation for this section.

30 RESOLVED, That the said proposition of amendment shall be submitted to the electors
31 for their approval or rejection at the next statewide general election. The voting places in the 32 several cities and towns shall be kept open during the hours required by law for voting therein;
33 and be it further

34 RESOLVED, That the secretary of state shall cause said proposition of amendment to be

1 published as a part of this resolution in the newspapers of the state prior to the date of the said
2 meetings of the said electors, and the said proposition shall be inserted in the warrants or notices
3 to be issued previous to said meetings of the electors for the purpose of warning the town, ward,
4 or district meetings, and said proposition shall be read by the town, ward or district clerks to the 5 electors in the town, ward, or district meetings to be held as aforesaid; and be it further

6 RESOLVED, That the town, ward, or district meetings to be held aforesaid shall be 7 warned, and the list of voters shall be canvassed and made up, and the said town, ward, or district
8 meetings shall be conducted in the same manner as now provided by law for the town, ward, and 9 district meetings for the statewide general election.

PLEDGE CARD

R.I. voters approved an advisory referendum for Voter Initiative in November 1996. Each year since, Senator Marc A. Cote and Representative Roger A. Picard have introduced Voter Initiative legislation that has never passed out of committee for a floor vote. The recently formed Voter Initiative Alliance is requesting that you pledge your support for the General Assembly to pass this legislation and place a binding question for Voter Initiative on the ballot in November 2006.

1. Do you support Voter Initiative? Yes No

2. Will you support having the proposed legislation appear on the 2006 ballot for the voters to decide? Yes No
