Honorable Jacob J. Alprin, Chairman
Committee on City Property
City Council
City Hall
Providence, Rhode Island

Dear Councilman Alprin:

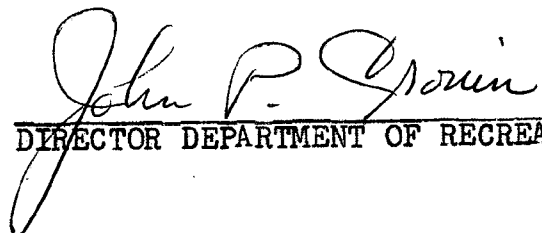

Concerning the sale of Garibaldi Playground to Grinell Corporation, I wish to report the following.

I have awaited a report from the Planning Commission which indicates that it proposes abandonment of the Playground and proposes industry in this area. The Commission offers no objection to the selling of this playground.

The chief concern of the Recreation Department is to replace Garibaldi Playground as soon as possible, and to implement the recommendations of the Master Plan which proposes new recreation facilities; one of these is the triangle east of Kenyon Street School. Also, the plan calls for the expansion and improvement of the Ridge Street Playground and the development of Franklin Square (Atwells Ave. and Bradford St.) into a playlot and park area.

The sale of Garibaldi Playground brings into sharp focus the need to expedite the master plan in this area in order to compensate for the loss.

Respectfully yours,

DIRECTOR DEPARTMENT OF RECREATION
