I have a constituent here, who, at the direction of the City Clerk, took the time to come down here and find out what you need to do to address this council. He is a taxpaying citizen in my neighborhood all his life. He was directed by the Clerk to write the Council President a letter, and request that he speak to him, he has an issue regarding crime that he wanted to speak to the council about. I notarized a letter and mailed it for him. I was a little — — to find out that he took the time to come down here this evening, he had to take the bus because he doesn't drive, and he advised me that his request to speak to the council was refused. I don't know what else a citizen is supposed to do that wishes to address the council, other than go through the proper channels. He has taken the time to come downtown twice, and was ready to go home, and I just thought that the issue should be brought to life as to why he was refused his request.

PERSONAL EXPRESSION

COUNCILMAN IGLIOZZI requests the privilege of the floor to speak on a point of personal expression and states:

"I would like to make a couple of comments, and before tonight goes by, I wanted to express gratitude to Dr. DeRobbio, Fran Rotella, Thomas — — and Diana Lam for a great grand opening of our school system this year. I also want to personally thank them, my neighborhood thanks you for the support you showed for the approval, creation and building of the three new schools in the Seventh Ward, and I want to let you know that I appreciate it. Thank you, and the neighborhood kids appreciate it. As you know, the first school was opened, the elementary school, the other day, and it was a great day for the school system, and for all of us because it shows our true commitment to education in Providence. I think it was also a great day because we planned to settle our dispute, or slight differences, with the teachers' union and were able to give them the contract that they so badly deserve. I also want to thank the council. We should all take note of that. I think it was a good, good day yesterday, and we should all be proud of that. I haven't been around the council as long as some of you, and I know that you have had difficult grand school openings, and I think you all should be aware that I think it was a great day for all of us. With all that said, thank you for your help, my neighborhood thanks you, and happy school year."
