ROLL CALL

INVOCATION

The Invocation is given by COUNCILMAN JOHN J. IGLIOZZI.

"Lord, bless all our family, friends and relatives. Bless all our loved ones who have passed away in these past years and bless all our loved ones who are struggling with any health issues. Bless our constituents that we represent. We are coming upon the Holy Week, bless all our brothers and sisters who are Christians and Catholics and anybody who celebrates this religious celebration and bless all our other brothers and sisters who subscribe to other religions and denominations which we all hopefully can achieve common ground together to create a more peaceful and loving world. Finally, Lord, bless our Council President and her family on her future new position, and also her family and friends as they move forward to make us all proud in Providence and our wards and the City Council. Thank you. God Bless."

Resolution Condemning AAPI Attacks & Denouncing Xenophobic Violence.

WHEREAS, The City of Providence is a city that values diversity, equity, and inclusion; and

WHEREAS, The City of Providence is comprised of a myriad of racial, ethnic, and cultural backgrounds; and

WHEREAS, 2021 has seen multiple attacks against the Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders (AAPI) including that of eight AAPI people, mostly women, who were heinously and atrociously murdered in the metro Atlanta area; and

WHEREAS, Our hearts go out to the families of Soon C. Park, 74, Hyun Jung Grant, 51, Suncha Kim, 69, Yong A. Yue, 63, Delaina Ashley Yaun, 33, Paul Andre Michels, 54, Xiaojie Tan, 49, Daoyou Feng, 44; and

WHEREAS, Crimes and reports of harassment against AAPI communities have increased nationwide over the last year, and;

WHEREAS, Harassment, bigotry, racism, and unconscionable anti-Asian violence which has been exacerbated by the COVID-19 pandemic; and

WHEREAS, We must confront these issues head-on and realize that no city, including Providence, is immune to this kind of violence due to entrenched biases and racism that still exist in our society; and

WHEREAS, Anti-AAPI xenophobia and racism related to the COVID-19 pandemic has put many Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders people, their families, and communities at risk; and

WHEREAS, We cannot be silent in the face of hatred and xenophobia.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Providence City Council stands in solidarity with Asian American and Pacific Islander (AAPI) community and condemns Asian hate and discrimination as well as the violent acts that occurred in metro Atlanta.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Providence City Council and City of Providence condemns and denounces hateful messages and attacks against people of all races and ethnicities and stand united in combating all forms of intolerance, bigotry, xenophobia, discrimination, and hate.

Resolution Thanking Brown University Council of Students (UCS) for their continued service to Brown and Providence.

WHEREAS, Brown University, which was founded in 1764 and is located in Providence, Rhode Island, is one of the leading research universities in the country; and

WHEREAS, Brown University is a vibrant artistic, intellectual, communal, civic, social, and cultural hub advancing a myriad of fields such as science, education, technology, health, medicine, and entrepreneurship; and

WHEREAS, Brown University is home to world-class leadership, faculty, staff, alumni, and students; and

WHEREAS, Brown University is also home to over 400+ student organizations that reflect the student community's diversity of talents and interests; and

WHEREAS, Brown University's Undergraduate Council of Students (UCS), is an example of one of these student organizations, and passionately carries out its mission to actively and authentically pursue and advocate for undergraduate interests; and

WHEREAS, Brown University UCS aspires to develop and foster collaboration between students, staff, and faculty in order to effectively communicate, represent, and build from the diversity of student interests that shape its campus; and

WHEREAS, Brown University UCS has been at the forefront of improving student experiences in the realm of Academic Affairs, Campus Life, Student Activities, and Student Wellness; and

WHEREAS, Brown University UCS has spearheaded many initiatives such as an airport shuttle program, spring break meal plan, email notification from the mailroom, disability study space, bias incident reporting, "Project Tampon" and recently a historic referenda calling upon the University to identify the descendants of slaves it harmed and seek to mend its troubling history and entanglement in the transatlantic slave trade; and

WHEREAS, Brown University UCS continues its tireless representation of the student body and should be applauded for its efforts.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Providence City Council wants to thank, congratulate and recognize the UCS for its leadership and commitment to making Brown University and the City of Providence a better place.

Resolution Recognizing April 2, 2021 as World Autism Day.

WHEREAS, The federal Centers for Disease Control and Prevention's Autism and Developmental Disabilities Monitoring Network declares that approximately 1 in 59 children have been identified with autism spectrum disorder (ASD); and

WHEREAS, ASD is a lifelong developmental disability that results from a neurological disorder that affects the functioning of the brain, mostly affecting children in many countries irrespective of gender, race, or socioeconomic status; and

WHEREAS, ASD is typically characterized by impairments in social interaction, problems with verbal and nonverbal communication, and restricted and repetitive behavior, interests, and activities; and

WHEREAS, ASD is a lifelong disability that manifests itself during the first three or four years of life; and

WHEREAS, On December 18, 2007, the United Nations General Assembly adopted Resolution 62/139 declaring April 2 as the annual World Autism Awareness Day; and

WHEREAS, The United Nations General Assembly invites all member states, relevant organizations of the United Nations system and other international organizations, as well as civil society, including nongovernmental organizations and the private sectors, to observe World Autism Awareness Day in an appropriate manner, in order to raise public awareness of autism; and

WHEREAS, The United Nations General Assembly encourages member states to take measures to raise awareness throughout society regarding children with autism and requests the Secretary-General to bring the present resolution to the attention of all member states and United Nations organizations; and

WHEREAS, United Nations General Assembly Resolution 62/139 also recalls the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child and the Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities to affirm that children with disabilities should enjoy a full and decent life, in conditions that ensure dignity, promote self-reliance, and ensure the full enjoyment of all human rights and fundamental freedoms on an equal basis with other children without disabilities; and

WHEREAS, April 2, 2021, is the 14th anniversary of the first day proclaimed as World Autism Awareness Day.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Providence City Council recognizes April 2, 2021 as World Autism Day and encourages residents to show support for autism awareness.

Resolution Regarding the Windmill Elementary School Property.

WHEREAS, In April of 2011, the Providence School Board voted to close the Windmill Street Elementary School; and

WHEREAS, Since the closure of the school, the property has sat vacant and there are currently no clear plans for redevelopment or reuse of the site; and

WHEREAS, With the ever-increasing housing demands within the City of Providence, the 5.5-acre Windmill Street Elementary School site represents a rare opportunity for the development of a significant number of dwelling units on property already owned by the City; and

WHEREAS, In going out to bid for the purpose of developing the Windmill Street Elementary School for veteran and elderly housing, the City of Providence can take the lead in addressing a critical need for local residents by providing safe and affordable dwelling units for those who have sacrificed for the city and their country.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Providence City Council hereby requests the Director of Public Property declare the Windmill Street Elementary School property surplus to municipal needs; issue an RFP for the purpose of developing the site for elderly and veteran housing, the results of which shall be sent to the Board of Contract and Supply; and, following approval by the Committee on Public Property of the proposed development plans, the transfer of title to the property shall be authorized by a resolution of the Providence City Council.
