It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

SECTION I. Chapter 832 of the Rhode Island Public Laws 1940, entitled, "Water Supply Board", Chapter 20, Section 121, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Membership. There shall be a water supply board, which shall consist of the Finance Director, ex-officio, and six (6) other members, four (4) of whom shall be appointed by the Mayor subject to the approval of the City Council, and two (2) of whom shall be members of the City Council, elected by the City Council from its councilmatic members to serve for a term ending the first Monday of January, A.D. 1975 and thereafter to be elected for a term of four (4) years. The Mayor, as soon as may be after his election and qualification shall appoint, subject to the approval of the council, four (4) members of said board, one each for terms of one, two, three and four years respectively, from the first Monday in January, 1941; and annually thereafter on the first Monday in January, or as soon thereafter as may be, the Mayor shall appoint, subject to the approval of the council, one member to said board for a term of four (4) years. Any vacancy occurring in the membership of said board shall be filled in accordance with the provisions of Sec. 47 hereof. The ex officio member shall receive no further compensation for services on said board, and the other members of said board shall receive no compensation for services thereon. Upon the qualification for or acceptance of any state or federal office to which compensation is attached, by any member of the board the office of such member on said board shall immediately become vacant. Except for the ex officio member of said board, the appointed members shall hold no other municipal office during their incumbency as members of said board.

JANUARY SESSION, A. D. 19

AN ACT

IN AMENDMENT OF PUBLIC LAWS 1935, CHAPTER 2255, SECTION 5, GENERAL LAWS 1938, CHAPTER 344, SECTION 5, GENERAL LAWS 1956, SECTION 45-25-10, AND PUBLIC LAWS 1970, CHAPTER 253, SECTION 1, ENTITLED, "PROVIDENCE HOUSING AUTHORITY"

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

SECTION I. General Laws of Rhode Island 45-25-10 entitled, "Appointment and Terms of Commissioners--Organization and Assistance" is hereby amended to read as follows:

An authority shall consist of five (5) commissioners appointed by the mayor and he shall designate the first chairman; provided however, that the housing authority of the city of Providence shall consist of ~~nine-(9)~~ eleven (11) commissioners who shall be residents of the city of Providence. At all times three (3) of the commissioners shall be occupants of public housing, which commissioners shall be appointed from a list of nominees chosen yearly by the occupants of public housing in open elections, each housing project choosing three (3) nominees from among its occupants. Upon the determination of the appointing authority that any commissioner shall have been not an occupant of public housing or not a resident of the city of Providence for a period of six (6) consecutive months, the appointing authority shall remove such commissioner and designate a person to fill the resultant vacancy, provided that the mayor choose the replacement from the list of nominees chosen yearly by the occupants of public housing when appropriate. No commissioner may be a city or state official, provided that members of the housing authority of the city of Providence may serve on the city council.

The commissioners who are first appointed shall be designated by the mayor to serve for terms of one (1), two (2), three (3), four (4) and five (5) years respectively from the date of their appointment. The Four (4) additional commissioners for the housing authority for the city of Providence shall be designated by the mayor to serve terms of one (1), two (2), three (3) and four (4) years respectively from the date of their appointment. Thereafter, the term of office shall be five (5) years. Two additional commissioners for the housing authority of the city of Providence shall be members of the city council elected by the city council from its councilmatic members to serve for a term ending the first Monday in January, A.D. 1975 and thereafter elected for a term of four (4) years. A commissioner shall hold office until his successor has been appointed, or elected, and has qualified. Vacancies shall be filled for the unexpired term. Three (3) commissioners shall constitute a quorum except that ~~five-(5)~~ seven (7) commissioners of the housing authority of the city of Providence shall consist a quorum.

The Mayor shall file with the city clerk a certificate of the appointment or reappointment of any commissioner and such certificate shall be conclusive evidence of the due and proper appointment of such commissioner. A commissioner shall receive no compensation for his services but he shall be entitled to the necessary expenses including Traveling expenses incurred in the discharge of his duties.

When the office of the first chairman of the authority becomes vacant, the authority shall select a chairman from among its members. An authority shall select from its members a vice-chairman, and it may employ a secretary (who shall be executive director), technical experts and such other officers, agents and employees, permanent and temporary, as it may require, and shall determine their qualifications, duties and compensation. An authority may call upon the City Solicitor or chief law officer of the City for such legal services as it may require or it may employ its own counsel and legal staff. An authority may delegate to one or more of its agents or employees such powers or duties as it may deem proper.

SECTION II. Nothing herein contained shall in any way alter any other part or provision of this Title, Chapter or Section, or any appointments heretofore or hereafter made thereunder, all of which remain in full force and effect.

SECTION III. This Act shall take effect upon its passage, and all Acts or parts of Acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.
