DEED OF TRUST

Brothers Realty Co., a Massachusetts corporation, formerly doing business in Providence, Rhode Island, for the purpose of making a contribution toward the improvement of the City of Providence, and with the object of stimulating the thinking of the people of Providence, with reference to their City, does herewith grant, deliver and set over to the City of Providence, a Municipal corporation of the State of Rhode Island, as Trustee, the sum of $6500.00 in SPECIAL TRUST however, upon the following terms, conditions and trusts:

FIRST. This trust shall be known as the "Better Providence Trust" until such time as the name thereof may be changed in accordance with the provisions hereof.

File
SECOND. The funds of the Trust shall be administered by the ~~Retirement Board~~ Board of Commissioners of Sinking Funds of the City of Providence in accordance with the law governing investments by such Board as they now are or as they may hereafter be enacted. If said Board shall cease to exist the Fund shall be administered by any Agency succeeding it or by the Agency of the City which then shall have the duty of holding and investing trust funds of said City.

THIRD. The purpose of the trust shall be to induce the residents of the said City to give thought to its problems, to express their opinions as to the solution of said problems and to develop their ideas as to how it may be made a better place in which to live, work and play.

FOURTH. To accomplish the above purpose the Trustee shall cause to be conducted annually an essay contest and have determined the three best papers submitted upon the subject of the contest as herein provided. It shall give due recognition to the award winners and others deemed worthy of mention and shall make available for public inspection all papers submitted to the Judges of said contest. Contests other than those of an essay type may be conducted by the Trustee provided that they tend to accomplish the purpose of the within Trust, including without limitation, the design or layout of the City and demonstration projects. The Trustee may from time to time place any contest upon a biennial basis with the approval or upon the recommendation of the Judges or upon a triennial basis if the public response to the contests herein provided dictate such action in the opinion of the Trustee and the Judges.

FIFTH. Annually said Trustee shall distribute the income of said trust up to the amount of $200.00 by awarding a first prize of $100.00, a second prize of $75.00 and a third prize of $25.00 to the winners of the contest being conducted. Undistributed income shall be added to the principal of said trust. If in any year the income of said trust shall be less than $200.00 the amount of the second or third prizes may be reduced or eliminated. If the income of said Trust Fund justifies such action the Trustee may award additional prizes or increase the amount of the first three awards or both.

SIXTH. The general subject of the contest shall be "A Better Providence in which to Live, Work and Play." The Judges of said contest may from time to time change the specific subject of said contest but it shall always be directed to accomplish the purpose and object of the within trust, namely, to stimulate public thinking upon the general welfare of the City and its inhabitants.

SEVENTH. The papers or other matters submitted in the contest shall be judged upon the basis of substance, originality, constructiveness and practicality with due regard to the economic and political situation of the City. Form shall be considered in the selection of winning papers but to a lesser extent than the other enumerated factors.

EIGHTH. Awards from said trust shall be made upon a rotating basis as follows:-

First year - for the best three papers submitted by junior or senior high school students in attendance at public or private schools in the City of Providence. Arrangements for the conduct of said contest at the school level, selection of the two best papers from each school participating and the forwarding of selected papers to the Judges shall be arranged by the Judges with the Superintendent of Schools of the City of Providence and the head of any other school system or school whose students participate in said contest.

Second year - for the best three papers submitted by residents of the City of Providence in attendance at any college or university wherever located either as an undergraduate or graduate students, and persons in attendance at any college or university in the State of Rhode Island.

Third year - for the best three papers submitted by residents of the City of Providence who are not regular students at any high school, college or university.

Fourth Year and thereafter, as above on a rotating basis.

NINTH. Judges of the contest shall be the editor of the Providence Journal - Bulletin, the Mayor of the City of Providence, the Presidents of Brown University, Providence College and Rhode Island School of Design, or any person designated by them to act as their representative. The Judges may change their representatives from time to time as they may decide.

TENTH. The Judges shall supervise the conduct of any contest, promulgate the rules and regulations governing the same, and arrange for the selection of the papers or other matters to be submitted to them for their consideration. They may if they so desire provide that the identity of the participants shall not be known until after the final selection of the prize winners by the Judges so as to assure selection of the papers submitted to them solely on the basis of merit. The Judges shall announce the prize winners. The rules and regulations governing said contest may be changed from time to time by the Judges or a majority of them as experience dictates or in accordance with the nature and type of contest being conducted.

ELEVENTH. The Judges may in their discretion at any time or from time to time suspend competition among any group if experience justifies such action, eliminate any group from participation and establish a different group or groups to participate in said contest including municipal employees. They shall from time to time make recommendations to the Trustee as to the kind of contest which should be conducted.

TWELFTH. The prize winning awards shall be distributed to the winners at a regular or special session of the City Council of the City of Providence by the Judges or anyone designated by them. The time and place of said distribution shall be publicly announced. Said Trustee may in its discretion and at its own expense arrange for the publication and distribution of the prize winning papers or any one of them or of any papers submitted to the judges or any other thing according to the nature of the contest.

THIRTEEN. Said Trustee is authorized to accept contributions to the fund hereby established from others for the purpose of increasing the principal thereof or the amount of the awards in any contest conducted by the Trustee.

Said Trustee may in its discretion and with the express approval of the Judges accept contributions from others to the within Trust Fund for the purpose of establishing a new or different type of contest or program provided the same and the terms and conditions of such contribution are consistent with the terms and conditions of the within Trust and the purpose and objects thereof, and further provided that any contest or program thus sponsored shall be under the auspices of the within Trust, with due recognition however to the sponsor, if it is desired.

FOURTEENTH. The within Trust shall be irrevocable and Charles Rudginsky, of Newton, Massachusetts, or Edmund Wexler Esq., of Providence, Rhode Island, is hereby authorized in behalf of the Settlor from time to time to alter, amend or revise the within trust including the name thereof with the consent of the Trustee but only in order to more effectively accomplish the purposes and objects of the within trust.

FIFTEENTH. The within trust shall be deemed to be a Rhode Island Trust and the validity, construction, effect and administration thereof shall be determined by the laws of this state and it is directed that the within Trust shall be liberally construed to effect the purposes and objects thereof.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF BROTHERS REALTY CO., has caused its corporate seal to be affixed and these presents to be executed by Edmund Wexler, its attorney in fact thereunto duly authorized and the CITY OF PROVIDENCE has caused its corporate seal to be affixed and these presents to be executed by Walter H. Reynolds, its Mayor, thereunto duly authorized, this day of November, 1962.

Mr. Scianetta, by request

TO THE HONORABLE MAYOR AND CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF PROVIDENCE:

The undersigned landowners on Hillcrest Avenue respectfully request that action be taken to correct the present situation existing on Hillcrest Avenue, south of the intersection with Freedom Road; that it is impossible to use this portion of the street for access to our driveways by automobile; that the present condition is extremely dangerous and unless corrected before cold weather sets in and/or snow comes will remain completely unpassable until Spring; that on November 21 a payloader truck and crew from Narragansett Improvement Company dug out several loads of dirt from the street and removed it; that on November 23 the same equipment and crew returned and removed more dirt; that since that date (November 23) no further work has been done nor have any equipment or crews appeared; that pieces of curbing had been laid out along the sides of Hillcrest Avenue but has since been removed.
