Resolution Endorsing and Urging Passage by the General Assembly of House Bill 2018 H-7422, An Act Relating to Public Utilities and Carriers - The Net Neutrality Protection Act of 2018 and House Bill 2018 H-7076 and Senate Bill 2018 S-2008, An Act Relating to Public Utilities and Carriers - Internet Providers - Net Neutrality.

WHEREAS, On January 10, 2018, Rhode Island Senator Louis DiPalma (D) and Rhode Island Representative Brian Kennedy (D) introduced SB 2008 and HB 7076, and on February 1, 2018, Rhode Island Representative Aaron Regunberg (D) introduced HB 7422; and

WHEREAS, Passage of these bills would amend Rhode Island General Laws to require internet access purchased or funded by the state be provided in an unbiased manner, consistent with Internet service neutrality requirements; and

WHEREAS, Introduction of this legislation comes in response to the Federal Communications Commission's (FCC) December 14, 2017 repeal of net neutrality regulations; and

WHEREAS, Net neutrality regulations prevent internet service providers (ISPs) from blocking lawful content, application, services, or non-harmful devices, as well as not allowing ISPs to prioritize and shape internet traffic to certain services in exchange for compensation (monetary or otherwise); and

WHEREAS, The repeal of these regulations allows ISPs greater flexibility in pricing internet access, potentially controlling consumers' access to information; and

WHEREAS, Without these regulations, ISPs would also have greater ability to prioritize their own content over other competitor's content; and

WHEREAS, Additionally, ISPs could charge for access to higher speeds, causing costs to rise for consumers and putting many small and new businesses at a disadvantage compared to larger and more established companies; and

WHEREAS, Business leaders and companies expressed disappointment at the FCC's repeal of net neutrality regulations, such as Microsoft Chief Legal Officer Brad Smith, who wrote "The open internet benefits consumers, business & the entire economy. That's jeopardized by the FCC's elimination of [net neutrality] protections today"; and

WHEREAS, Net neutrality regulations ensure that there is an open and free internet for consumers and businesses alike, allowing for creativity, equitable access to information, and innovation; and

WHEREAS, The City Council has made a commitment to transparency and making information accessible to the public via the Internet through initiatives such as the City Meeting Portal and City Open Data website, which ensure equitable and open access to information for all members of the public; and

WHEREAS, As public servants and the elected representatives of the people of Providence, the City Council has an obligation to ensure consumers have equitable access to information on a free and open internet and an obligation to ensure that small businesses and startups are able to compete and grow alongside larger and more established companies.

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, That the Providence City Council strongly supports Rhode Island House Bill 7422, House Bill 7076 and Senate Bill 2008 to preserve net neutrality regulations in the State of Rhode Island.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That, upon passage, copies of this resolution be sent to the Providence delegation of the Rhode Island General Assembly.

Resolution Recognizing February 2018 as Black History Month.

WHEREAS, In 1926, Dr. Carter G. Woodson, considered the "Father of Black History", launched the celebration of Negro History Week; and

WHEREAS, Negro History Week was celebrated in the second week of February to correspond with the birthdays of Frederick Douglass and Abraham Lincoln; and

WHEREAS, In 1970, the Black United Students and black educators at Kent State University proposed celebrating a Black History Month; and

WHEREAS, In 1976, at the United States Bicentennial celebration, President Gerald Ford recognized the entire month of February as Black History Month, urging American citizens to "seize the opportunity to honor the too-often neglected accomplishments of black Americans in every area of endeavor throughout our history"; and

WHEREAS, During the month of February, observances are held to increase public awareness and knowledge of the importance of black history in the United States; and

WHEREAS, The African-American community has made countless contributions to the various fields as scientists, educators, artists, historians, writers, business leaders, athletes, political leaders, and influential thinkers; and

WHEREAS, Black History Month serves as a reminder of all those who fought and continue to fight for social justice, civil rights, and equality; and

WHEREAS, As part of the City of Providence's Black History Month festivities, for the past fifteen years, local individuals in the Providence community have been recognized for their contributions to civil rights, social justice, and equality with the Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Hall of Fame award; and

WHEREAS, Additionally, the Providence City Council, in collaboration with the City Archives, hosts an exhibit every February to honor and recognize the African-American community of Providence and their contributions to the City and State of Rhode Island.

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, That the Providence City Council recognizes and celebrates February 2018 as Black History Month and honors the innumerable contributions of African-Americans to Providence, Rhode Island, and the United States of America.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, The City Council encourages the celebration of Black History Month throughout the City of Providence as an opportunity to learn and reflect on the history of the United States, while remaining hopeful and confident about the future.

PERSONAL EXPRESSION

COUNCILMAN NARDUCCI Requests the privilege of the floor to speak on a Point of Personal Expression and states:

"Tonight, I stand just to let everybody know at the beginning of last week it was brought to my attention a certain name that was brought out about the Italo Americans, and I fought against what was said and I took it personal. I thought it affected Italo Americans in the State, never mind in the country, and I was very pleased to get the support I got from my colleagues and the administration on this because again, the message that the City of Providence keeps sending out is we should be a One Providence, and how do you have One Providence, again, if you have people in certain positions making remarks out of other races. I just again want to say thank you for everybody's support and I am looking forward on what we need to do in that particular position. Thank you."
