PROVIDENCE:
SAMPSON, MURDOCK, & CO.
NO. 54 NORTH MAIN STREET

COPYRIGHT, 1902, BY SAMPSON, MURDOCK, & CO.

PRICE, $4.50.

INTRODUCTORY.

IN issuing the sixty-second volume of the PROVIDENCE DIRECTORY, attention is invited to the numerous changes recorded below, showing a very large per centage of alterations, seventy-two and one half percentage of last years names, and from this statement by actual count, some faint idea of the labor and care required to produce this book may be obtained. The work in every department increases each year, with the advance in population, which we estimate from data secured on this canvass at 189,000 at the present time.

The PROVIDENCE HOUSE DIRECTORY will be made in the Autumn from an entirely new and separate canvass, and will contain valuable additions and improvements.

Caution is repeated in regard to the swindling canvasser who collects in advance or requests signatures to receipts and vouchers. If in doubt, telephone to the Directory office and it may save a few dollars.

We regret to announce that the veteran, Mr. Thomas R. Briggs, born in 1807, died March 10, 1902—the last remaining name among all contained in the first City Directory of 1824.
