WILLIAM J. DANIELSON. GEORGE W. DANIELSON.

DANIELSON & SON,

Newspaper Advertising

AND SUBSCRIPTION AGENTS

No. 96 Westminster St., Providence, R. I.

Judicious Advertising Promotes Trade.

William J. Danielson, for more than twenty years connected with the "Providence Journal," established in 1886 a General Newspaper Advertising and Subscription Agency, in the Lyceum Building, No. Westminster Street.

Seven Years' Experience as a General Newspaper Advertising Agent has afforded him ample opportunity to observe the waste caused by injudicious methods of advertising, and enables him to suggest the best mediums and to offer practical advice and assistance in so placing advertisements that the advertiser MAY REAP the best results from the money expended.

In 1900 Mr. Danielson admitted his son George W., who has had eight years of thoroughly practical experience in the various departments, to a partnership in the business.

Advertisements and Subscriptions received for ALL THE LEADING Newspapers and Magazines at Low Rates. Special attention given to "locals" or reading notices in the Providence Papers. Libraries, Societies or Individuals requiring any considerable number of Newspapers and Periodicals will find it to their advantage to send for terms.

Estimates for any amount of Advertising and information as to the best mediums cheerfully furnished.

No. 96 Westminster St., Providence, R. I.

Judicious Advertising Promotes Trade.

William J. Danielson, for more than twenty years connected with the "Providence Journal," established in 1886 a General Newspaper Advertising and Subscription Agency, in the Lyceum Building, 96 Westminster Street.

Sixteen Years' Experience as a General Newspaper Advertising Agent has afforded him ample opportunities to observe the waste caused by injudicious methods of advertising, and enables him to test the best mediums and to offer practical advice and assistance in so placing advertisements that the Advertiser MAY REAP the best results from the money expended.

In 1900 Mr. Danielson admitted his son George W., who has had eight years of thoroughly practical experience in the various departments, to a partnership in the business.

Advertisements and Subscriptions received for ALL THE LEADING Newspapers and Magazines at Low Rates. Special attention given to "locals" or reading notices in the Providence Papers. Libraries, Societies or Individuals requiring any considerable number of Newspapers and Periodicals will find it to their advantage to send for terms.

Estimates for any amount of Advertising and information as to the best mediums cheerfully furnished.

Long Distance Telephone.

STORAGE BATTERIES

We manufacture an ELECTRO-CHEMICALLY FORMED PLATE according to the most advanced ideas of modern electro-chemistry.

This type of plate is absolutely NON-INFRINGING and combines the elements of DURABILITY and EFFICIENCY in the greatest possible degree.

By improved machinery we have materially lessened the cost of production and hence are able to furnish high grade batteries at reasonable prices.

—THE—

J. Hyde, Jr. Patent Hydraulic Food Elevator

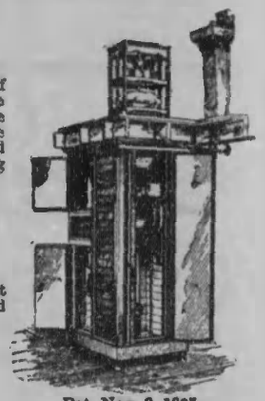
COMBINED WITH A COOL AIR CIRCULATING REFRIGERATOR.

Fully 50 per cent. of a saving, that is, taking into consideration the convenience and the convenience of more refrigerator shelf space, with less ice and better preservation. A few words from prominent business men who are using this Refrigerator:

Office of New England Thread Co.

Pawtucket, Dec. 16, 1901.

John Hyde, Jr., 73 Carpenter St., City.—Dear Sir: I have had one of your Refrigerators in my house now for over a year, and find it to be the most useful adjunct to my house. It is a VERY great improvement over the so-called "Improved Refrigerators," and works perfectly, responding to the water pressure at the least turn of the faucet. The water-cooler attached is also a great convenience, and on the whole, I could hardly get along without this Refrigerator. I am yours very truly,



HENRY A. WARBURTON.

Slater Cotton Co.

Pawtucket, Dec. 12, 1901.

J. Hyde, Jr., Esq.—Dear Sir: Will say in regard to inquiry made, that the Refrigerator is working VERY satisfactorily, and am VERY much pleased with it.

Yours truly, V. T. BARBER.
