

August 22, 2008

Anna M. Stetson
City Clerk
City Clerk's Office
Providence City Hall
25 Dorrance Street
Providence, RI 02903

Dear Ms. Stetson:

I, Deborah L. Hudson, respectfully submit my resignation, (retirement) as First Deputy City Clerk, City Clerk's Office, effective Friday, September 5, 2008.

It has been a rewarding experience in the Clerk's Office to work with staff (my awesome and sometimes hysterically funny co-workers), City Council Members whom I admire deeply, City Council Office, (the best), Mayor's Office (most sincere) and the entire staff of City Hall.

In closing, I want to thank everyone I've worked with and came in contact within the City of Providence for the past twenty-three years. You've all contributed to my sanity and sometimes crazy days that we all got through at the end of every day.

To not walk into City Hall on a daily basis will be truly missed from greeting Ellen and Vin in the morning and saying good night as we proceed down the steps at night. I will miss you all.

Sincerely,

Deborah L. Santos Hudson

cc: Mayor David N. Cicilline
Peter Mancini, City Council President
Sybil Bailey, Director, Department of Human Resources

