WASHINGTON

Dear Ms. Mendonca:

Thank you for your recent message of support for the President's actions in handling the Iranian situation.

The President's primary concern in this extremely difficult and volatile situation is to secure the safe return of every single American being held hostage in Iran. He will persist in his efforts, through every means available, until the hostages are freed. This nation will not be blackmailed, and all Americans stand together in our determination to achieve both the safe release of our countrymen and women and our nation's energy security.

The American people have demonstrated their will, their courage, their wisdom, and their patience during the past few weeks. The President deeply appreciates that, and thanks you for your confidence and support.

Best wishes.

Sincerely,

Jack H. Watson, Jr.
Assistant to the President
for Intergovernmental Affairs
