Mr. Michael Clement
City Clerk
City of Providence
City Hall
Providence, Rhode Island 02903

Dear Mr. Clement:

Thank you for forwarding me a copy of the Providence City Council's Resolution regarding the PATRIOT Act, more formally known as the Provide Appropriate Tools Required to Intercept and Obstruct Terrorism Act. I appreciate hearing from you on this matter.

As you may know, the PATRIOT Act was passed in the wake of the September 11th attacks. The law bolstered the ability of federal authorities to conduct criminal and intelligence investigations, to bar and expel foreign terrorists from the United States, to separate terrorists from their sources of financial support, to punish acts of terrorism, and to assist victims of the events of September 11. While I had reservations about this legislation, the need to address the obvious threat, combined with the fact that the Act sunsets in five years, prompted me to vote for the PATRIOT Act.

The provision of greater investigative authority to our nation's law enforcement officials is a matter that raises many issues, and certainly there is a great onus upon the Department of Justice to utilize the awesome authority of the PATRIOT Act in a circumspect and cautious manner. Likewise, Congress has a responsibility to conduct vigorous oversight on the use of the PATRIOT Act's new powers, and, to date, the Senate Judiciary Committee has held twelve hearings on the Act since its passage.

I recognize that there is a great deal of concern that the Department of Justice is abusing the PATRIOT Act's authority and may even seek to expand these powers. I believe that until there is demonstrated reason for greater authority there is no basis for such an expansion. Indeed, you can be assured that I will draw upon your thoughtful comments as the Senate debates the Department of Justice's budget and its use of the PATRIOT Act's considerable power.

As always, it is a pleasure hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Jack Reed
United States Senator
