March 12, 1976

The Honorable City Council
Inccare of the City Clerk
City Hall
Providence, Rhode Island 02903

Dear Members of the Honorable City Council:

It is with deepest regret that I inform you that I am, effective today, resigning my responsibilities as City Assessor.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all members of the Honorable City Council for the cooperation extended to me in my capacity as City Assessor.

I hope that the programs charged to my responsibility met with your approval and justified your support.

It has been a distinct personal and professional honor to have been confirmed by your Honorable Body and to have assisted in the further development of the future of this City.

Very truly yours,

Donald M. Capuano
City Assessor
