

RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL

No. 448

Approved November 8, 2023

WHEREAS, We, the Providence City Council, with heavy hearts and profound sorrow, recognize the profound loss of a cherished member of our community, Cameron Ramsay, who departed this world on October 17, 2023, at the tender age of 36; and

WHEREAS, Born on November 8, 1986, in Fall River, Massachusetts, Cameron was the beloved son of Duncan and Patricia (Crane) Ramsay, and after the passing of his father, he and his mother relocated to Tiverton, RI, where he found joy in the community; and

WHEREAS, Cameron's formative years in Tiverton were marked by a love for sports, playing youth soccer, basketball, and baseball. He showcased his athletic spirit as a member of the Tiverton High School tennis team and later found camaraderie in an adult Whiffle Ball League with lifelong friends; and

WHEREAS, Despite facing challenges with motor skills in his early years, Cameron defied the odds and discovered a passion for sleight of hand, becoming an active member of the Rhode Island Society of Magicians (RISM) and contributing to the production of a pilot episode for the magic series "Don't Trust Andrew Mayne" on A & E; and

WHEREAS, Cameron's journey continued at the University of Rhode Island, where he earned a bachelor's degree in Communication. His exceptional communication and people skills became instrumental in his participation in key roles within political campaigns at both the town and Rhode Island state senatorial levels; and

WHEREAS, Cameron's name became intertwined with our civic landscape, standing as a pillar of support for political candidates across Rhode Island who embodied the principles of justice and equality that he cherished; and

WHEREAS, The void left by Cameron's departure is not just a loss for his family and friends but for our entire community, a poignant reminder of the impact one dedicated soul can have.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That we, the Providence City Council, bow our heads in solemn remembrance, honoring the remarkable life and contributions of Cameron Ramsay.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That this resolution be presented to Cameron Ramsay's family as a small token of our deep sympathy, gratitude, and enduring love for the extraordinary person he was.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Let this resolution stand as a testament to the enduring impact Cameron Ramsay made upon our hearts and the City of Providence, adopted on November 2, 2023.

IN CITY COUNCIL
NOV 02 2023
READ AND PASSED

ACTING PRES.

CLERK

I HEREBY APPROVE.

Mayor

Date: 11/8/2023